? ? Q U E R I E S ? ?

Queries from members in good standing are published free in the CGGS Quarterly. There is no restriction as to number or length of queries or frequency of submission. Queries should be typewritten and double spaced. Include your MEMBERSHIP NUMBER, NAME AND COMPLETE ADDRESS to which replies are to be made.

Some members have complained because they have gone to great effort and/or expense to assemble information in reply to a query and did not receive so much as an acknowledgment for their efforts. They no longer intend to respond. Please do not be the source of this disappointment. SEND A THANK YOU LETTER TO ANYONE WHO REPLIES TO YOUR QUERY.

DeLANY/DeLANEY/DeLAUNAY, SHEFFIELD, GRAHAM.

This member is searching for information on William Franklin DELANY, possibly spelled DeLANEY or DeLAUNAY and Mary Ann SHEFFIELD. William F. and Mary A. married in Vienna, GA on 13 Sep 1849. They were enumerated in 1850 Federal Census of Dooley Co., GA and he was listed as a farmer, age 26. Mary Ann was 20 yrs old at this time. They were living near following families: Pleasant H. KEY, Homer M. KEY and William GRAHAM. These three men were security on a bond for William F. DeLANY in May 1952. The bond was a result of an altercation with William R. DAWSON, a prominent businessman, merchant and plantation owner. The securities had to forfeit their bail because William F. DeLANY did not show up for the trial.

In 1854 or before, William F. and Mary Ann migrated to Guadalupe Co., Tx and lived there the remainder of his life, until 27 Jul 1885. It is tradition that William F. DeLANY's father died while William was quite young and his mother married a (Robert?) GRAHAM. To reinforce this thought, his first child was named Robert Graham DeLANY. William F. is supposed to have been born 28 Apr 1815 Monroe Co, Ga. This could not have been possible since Monroe Co was not created until 1821. Is there a connection between him and William DeLANY listed in taxables of Pikes Co list of 1827? It is thought that Daniel C. SHEFFIELD b. 7 Apr 1806 and Mary V. SHEFFIELD were the parents of Mary Ann SHEFFIELD.

Mr. Butler will greatly appreciate any information on these two families and will be happy to correspond with anyone interested in connecting with the Texas branch of the DeLANY or SHEFFIELD families. He will also pay reasonable postage for information on these families.

90-714. M. C. Butler, [redacted]

STEWART.

This member is looking for place of birth and marriage, etc. on Josiah STEWART b. 16 Sep 1816 Ga. and his wife Elizabeth ? b. 6 Apr 1820 Ga. Their children were Alexander, Nancy S., Martha Ann, Sarah, John D., Elizabeth and James. The family was living in Washington Co, Fl in 1850.Need information prior to 1850. The first four children were born in Ga.

90-709. Betty J. Cook, [redacted].

JORDAN, JARRETT, CARLTON, PERARSON, MIMS, McINTOSH, ANSLEY, CARTER, GLEN, VALENTINE.

Thomas P. JORDAN b. 1810 d. 1866, m. Amanda M ? , lived Thomas Co, GA in 1840 and 1860; lived in Hamilton Co, Fl from c 1842 to c 1857/8. Children:

Isaac b. 1848 FL, m. ?
James H. b. 1851 FL, m. Anna ANSLEY
George P. b. 1853 FL, m. Mattie CARTER
William b. 1855 FL, m. Rachel GLEN
Julia b. 1857 GA, m. Lee VALENTINE
Josiah G, b, 1860 GA, m. Lula Gertrude JARRETT

Mr. Jordan would like anyone having information about Thomas P. JORDAN to write.

89-622. Leon H. Jordan, [redacted]

BENTON, BAXTER, BUTLER, HOLLIS, GARDNER, FLEMING, PENNINGTON, MALONE, NEEL, EVERETT, PRINGLE.

Ms Stroud would appreciate any information on the ancestry and descendants of John GARDNER, b. 1776/8 VA, county unknown, d. 1860, Johnstonville, Monroe Co, GA (now Lamar Co.). His wife was said to have been Catherine"Katie" PRINGLE, b. c 1778 SC, d. 1856, Johnstonville, GA. (maiden name of PRINGLE not proven). John GARDNER was in Kershaw Co, SC by 1800 and moved to Monroe Co, GA (now Lamar Co) in 1828. They had 15 - 17 children.

What was John GARDNER's relationship to Thomas GARDNER, Daniel and Susannah GARDNER, Robert GARDNER, John GARDNER, George GARDNER and other GARDNERS listed in early Kershaw Co, SC records? She also seeks information to prove or disprove that John GARDNER's wife was Catherine PRINGLE. If she was a PRINGLE, who were her parents? John GARDNER's oldest son, Frederick GARDNER, m. Martha FLEMING, (b. 1797 SC) 1821 in Kershaw Co. It appears that her father was Alexander FLEMING. Need proof of Martha FLEMING's parentage. Families of BENTON, BAXTER, BUTLER, and HOLLIS are somehow connected to the GARDNERS and FLEMINGS.

She will gladly exchange information and data.

* * * * * * * * * * * *

Who were the parents of William PENNINGTON b. c 1817 GA (probably one of the middle GA counties), d. after 18(?). He was last found on 1860 Miller Co Census. He married Susan (Ann) MALONE (b. c 1805 SC) 8 Sep 1837 Decatur Co, GA. She was daughter of Robert MALONE. James M. PENNINGTON who m. Mary NEEL 10 Nov 1839 in Decatur Co, was apparently a brother to William. James M. and William lived in Decatur Co and later both moved to Miller Co. William and Susan MALONE PENNINGTON had children: Sarah, James M. and Stephen Randolph. Stephen m. Julia Elizabeth EVERETT Jan 1867, probably in Miller Co.

Also seek information on the MALONEs. Who was Susan MALONE's mother and who were the parents of Robert MALONE? Ms Stroud will gladly exchange information and data.

89-672. Anna Margaret Stroud, [redacted]

COCHRAN, HARRUP, BAGGERLY, KELLY, RIGSBY, PARTAIN, PROCTOR.

Mr. Ogelsby would like to find the parents and siblings of William COCHRAN (possible middle name David) who married Elizabeth HARRUP on 21 Jul 1864, Monroe Co, GA. He has checked COCHRANS in Monroe, Pike, Upson, etc. COCHRANS and can find no connection between them and William. The only records (other than their marriage) found on William and Elizabeth COCHRAN are 1870 and 1880 censuses of Monroe Co. His age is given as 35 and 38 respectively so he cannot estimate year of birth, however his birthplace is listed as GA on both.

William and Elizabeth COCHRAN had four children:

1) Charles Casper COCHRAN b. 11 Jun 1865, m. (1) Luda RIGSBY on 4 Sep 1884, Crawford Co, GA (no children of this marriage), and (2) Susie BAGGERLY on 15 Dec 1887, Monroe Co, GA. Charlie COCHRAN D. 17 Feb 1938, Upson Co and is buried at Ramah Primitive Baptist Church in Lamar Co.

2) Fannie COCHRAN b. Jun 1867, m. Will R. KELLY on 25 nov 1883 in Monroe Co. Will and Fannie settled in Griffin, Spalding Co by 1910 and are assumed to have died there.

3) Elijah Clayton COCHRAN b. 4 Mar 1869, m. (1) Abigail KELLY on 18 May 1890 in Upson Co, and (2) Daisy PARTAIN on 3 Apr 1898 in Upson Co. Elijah COCHRAN d. 15 Apr 1940 Crawford Co and is buried there in Mt. Carmel Primitive Baptist Church Cemetery.

4) Lula COCHRAN b. Apr 1874, m. (1) Reubin BAGGERLY on 26 Sep 1894 in Monroe Co, and (2) ___?___ PROCTOR. Lula was living in Griffin, Spalding Co, at the time of Charlie COCHRAN's death and is assumed to have died there.

Mr. Oglesby is descended from William and Elizabeth COCHRAN through both of their sons and being unable to find who their parents were or where he was born puts quite a block on his maternal lines.

He would like to correspond with anyone having information about William COCHRAN and with anyone interested in any other of the above mentioned families. He has information on HARRUPS, BAGGERLYS, and KELLYS.

RECENT ACQUISITIONS AT WASHINGTON MEMORIAL LIBRARY

POLICY: The Central Georgia Genealogical Society, Inc., during 1987 discontinued the maintenance of a Society Library. The holdings in our Library were small and duplicated publications held in the Genealogical and Historical Room, Washington Memoral Library, Macon, GA which has one of the largest collections in the southeast. The Macon Library is centrally located within the 27 county jurisdiction of our society and can far better serve our membership. All publications previously held were presented to Willard L. ROCKER, Head Librarian at the Genealogical and Historical Room. All publication received by our society as gifts, donations, by exchange programs or for book reviews will be presented to the same library. Since 1987, it has been our policy to support the Macon Library particularly in the acquisition of microfilms of early county records within our jurdisctional area. We hope to expand our support as future conditions permit. As a service to our membership, this column list the acquisition of all records since the previous Quarterly. Inquiries with SASE (business size) may be addressed to the library at 1180 Washington Ave., Macon, GA 31201.

William R. HENRY, Assistant Editor

NOTE: The genealogical collection of this library contains 16,000 books, 5900 microfilms, 1500 microfiche, 259 Maps and 60 subscriptions. The library serves 11,000 visitors annually. During 1989 they came from 34 states, DC, and 4 foreign countries.

Adeline Davis

Contributed by: Stephen F. GATES, [redacted]
CGGS Member No. 89-666.

I have attempted for several years to identify the parents of Adeline (Addie) Davis who married William Bryan, Jr. on 11 March 1868. William Bryan, Jr. (1841-1909) was born and raised in Twiggs County, Georgia, son of William Bryan, Sr. (1808-1887) and Winifred Massey (1816-1904). He served in Phillip's Legion-Cavalry (1862-1865). Between 1865 and 1870, his parents relocated to Dooly County near Vienna. He and Adeline lived with his parents there in 1880. Their children were Charles (b.1870), Agnes (b.1878) and Clara (b.1881). I believe Adeline Davis Bryan died between 1885-1895. Her burial place is not known. Efforts to identify this Adeline Davis include the following:

Census. The 1880 Dooly County census indicates that Adeline was born c1848 in Georgia. I have not found William and Adeline Bryan in the 1870 Georgia census. The only Adeline Davis found in the 1860 Georgia census is age 11 with Martha J. Davis age 33 (widowed mother?) in Fayette County in the household of J. W. Boseman. No Adeline Davis was found in the 1850 Georgia census. The only Twiggs County Davis family in 1850 with a daughter born c1848 appears to be D. D. Davis with daughter Sarah. William Bryan was a widower by the 1900 Georgia census.

Family Sources. The marriage date, 11 Mar.1868, but no other information, was found in the family Bible of William Bryan, Sr. No other family documents refering to Adeline are known. Descendants of daughter Clara and son Charles apparently have no information. I do not know of any descendants of daughter Agnes, who married William Liggin of De Soto, Sumter County, Georgia.

Davis References. The only possible Adeline found in various Davis reference books is daughter (b.1851) of James L. Davis of Georgia/Mississippi. No connection with central Georgia or William Bryan has been found. The Davis Clearing House of Kirkwood, Missouri has no listing of an Adeline.

Query. My query in the Quarterly of the Central Georgia Genealogical Society produced the hint that a William R. Davis, son of Wrightson Davis, lived in Twiggs County in the 1840s and could be Adeline's father. A William Davis is in the 1850 Twiggs County mortality schedule--married, age 32, died April 1850. Was Martha J. Davis, in the 1860 Fayette County census, his widow?

Local History. No references on Twiggs or Dooly Counties identifies an Adeline Davis or Adeline Bryan. The Bryan family were generally members of the Pleasant Valley Methodist Church, west of Vienna. William Bryan's 1904 Confederate pension application indicates that he lived in Georgia but for the years 1864-1868.

Status. I presume that William Bryan, Jr. of Twiggs/Dooly County married someone from central Georgia. He lived in the area all his life except during someone from central Georgia. He lived in the area all his life except during the Civil War and the years 1864-1868. My guess is that he was in Florida for these years. Adeline Davis in the 1860 Fayette County census is the right age, but no link has been found between her and a William Davis of Twiggs County. I suppose William and Adeline Bryan may have been left out of the 1870 Georgia census.

Any help our members can provide Mr. Gates will be greatly appreciated. Ed.

PUBLISHING PEDIGREE CHARTS

We would like to publish your pedigree charts in our Quarterly. You may submit your charts in whatever format you are using and we will convert them to our chart format for publication. Our chart covers five generations, counting the individual descendant and four generations of paternal and maternal ancestors.

Most pedigree charts do not provide for as much information as our pedigree chart does. For example; our chart provides for as much information on the fifth generation as for the second, third and fourth -- most charts provide much less information for later generations. You may submit the additional information on a separate sheet of paper and we can add it in your chart for publication. Try to give us as much complete information as possible.

PLEASE PRINT OR TYPE ALL INFORMATION

1. Show the first, middle, and last name of husband and wife. It's a good idea to print the husband's SURNAME and the wife's FAMILY NAME in all CAPITAL LETTERS.

2. Show dates by Day-Month-Year, and use the 3-Letter abbreviation for the months. Show date of birth; date of death [not date buried], and marriage date.

3. Show the number of this marriage for the husband.

4. Show place of birth for husband and wife, e.g., City/Town, County, State/Foreign Country.

5. Show place of interment [not place of death] for hussband and wife, e.g., Name of cemetery, City/Town, County, State/Foreign Country.

6. Show place of marriage, e.g., Church, City/Town, County, State/Foreign Country.

A WORD OF CAUTION:

A pedigree chart shows a person's paternal and maternal bloodlines. There is no place on the pedigree chart for step-parents nor parents by adoption. Be careful to match all descendants with the correct mother when the father has been married more than once. Don't submit a chart with too many blank spaces or a lot of "circa" dates.

LIST OF THE DEAD

The following list of passengers missing from the Titanic, revised from last reports from the Carpathia, contains only 914 actual names out of the total of 1,635 lost, but many more are accounted for in the steerage reports under the word "family." Still more of the victims in the steerage have not yet been named, and few, if any, of the names of the missing among the crew have been reported.

SIMPSON, SHEPHERD, RIDLEY, BRAEZEAL, KEEN.

James E. SIMPSON, Sr. m. Louisa SHEPHERD 9 Nov 1852, Wilkinson Co., GA (1st wife Dorcas RIDLEY). James was a member of Bethel Baptist Church, 6 mi. from Irwinton. He was a member of Co. D, 8th Ga Reg. Militia, Wilkinson Co., GA. He was probably in the Battle of Griswoldwille. Ms Alonis has reason to believe he was also a member of Co. D, 4th Reg. Ga Cav. (later consolidated into 12th Ga Cav). Papers from National Archives show a James SIMPSON in that unit, enlisted 4 Oct 1862 in Chattanooga, as substitute for B. F. NABORS.

Census records show James' occupation as overseer. She believes he was employed on plantation of Green H. BRAEZEAL (spelling?) since house number on census was next to this farmer. He would have had his own horse to join the cavalry.

Ms Alonis can find no record prior to 1850 in Wilkinson Co., GA. Was James wounded in the Cavalry, returned home, and later joined the militia when Sherman was near? Last child was born in 1876. Does anyone have a record of 4th Ga Cav, battles fought, etc?

Who were James' parents and where were they born? She is also unable to find any record of Louisa SHEPHERD prior to 1860. Who were her parents and where were they born? Where was Louisa born?

Is there anyone close to Irwinton who could check burial records at Bethel Baptist Church or does anyone have a cemetary book which could be checked? Member also believes Charles D. KEEN and Mary (Hollie) SIMPSON KEEN were buried at that church graveyard.

Ms Alonis would appreciate any information on any of the above. She is really stumped on James SIMPSON and Louisa SHEPHERD.

RECENT ACQUISITIONS AT WASHINGTON MEMORIAL LIBRARY

POLICY: The Central Georgia Genealogical Society, Inc., during 1987 discontinued the maintenance of a Society Library. The holdings in our Library were small and duplicated publications held in the Genealogical and Historical Room, Washington Memoral Library, Macon, GA which has one of the largest collections in the southeast. The Macon Library is centrally located within the 27 county jurisdiction of our society and can far better serve our membership. All publications previously held were presented to Willard L. ROCKER, Head Librarian at the Genealogical and Historical Room. All publication received by our society as gifts, donations, by exchange programs or for book reviews will be presented to the same library. Since 1987, it has been our policy to support the Macon Library particularly in the acquisition of microfilms of early county records within our jurdisctional area. We hope to expand our support as future conditions permit. As a service to our membership, this column list the acquisition of all records since the previous Quarterly. Inquiries with SASE (business size) may be addressed to the library at 1180 Washington Ave., Macon, GA 31201.

William R. HENRY, Assistant Editor

NOTE: The genealogical collection of this library contains 16,000 books, 5900 microfilms, 1500 microfiche, 259 Maps and 60 subscriptions. The library serves 11,000 visitors annually. During 1989 they came from 34 states, DC, and 4 foreign countries.

DeLANY - MADDOX - SPEER

90-714 Mr. Michie C. BUTLER, [redacted], is searching for anyone having knowledge or relationship to the following persons listed in marriage records of Monroe County, GA:

Sarah DeLANY and John MADDOX, m.1 June 1845
Nancy DeLANY and Allison SPEER, m.24 April 1842.

Is there a connection between either of the two DeLANY girls and William Franklin DeLANY? b.c1825 in Monroe County, GA. It is reported that he was born in 1815 in Monroe County, but the date appears to be wrong unless his parents were living in Creek Indian Territory - could this be true?

There was also a William DeLANY listed in the Pike County, GA, taxables in 1827 living in Capt. E. M. FENCHER'S district. Can he be connected to either of the DeLANY girls or to William Franklin DeLANY?

Will correspond with anyone interested in or related to any of the above DeLany family members and desiring to share information with a possible distant relative.

REGAN - ROZAR/ROZIER

I am interested in these two families of Pulaski County, Georgia. Brothers Daniel and Samuel REGAN(pronounced like the ex-President, today spelled "Reagan") moved to Laurens County c.1805-1807 from Beaufort County, SC, and they moved to Pulaski County c.1808-1809. They were sons of Ralph REGAN of Robeson/Balden Counties, NC. Samuel died before 1820, leaving sons Joseph and Charles. Daniel's wife was Mary - what was her maiden name and who were her parents? Daniel d.1827, leaving children: Joseph and Elias Daniel REGAN, Emillia Regan SMITH, Olive Regan BROWN, Martha Regan TURNER, Charlotte Regan SAVAGE and Elizabeth Regan ROZAR(Rozier/Rosier). Daniel's widow Mary lived in Pulaski until her death in 1846.

John Rozar/Rozier/Rosier's children intermarried with those of Daniel Regan. John moved to GA from SC or Bladen/Robeson County, NC. He is believed to be the son of either Shadrack or David Rozar, but can find no proof. John lived in Jefferson County during the 1790s and early 1800s. He was in Pulaski County be c1809. His wife was Mariann, but cannot find her maiden name. John died about 1829/1830, leaving sons Seaborn, John Jr., Shadrack, and Charles A. ROZAR, and daughters Olive Rozar REGAN, Pheraby Rozar PHILLIPS (later married Robert BROWN), Elizabeth Rozar REGAN, Eady Rozar REGAN, Gilley ROZAR(single), Theresa Rozar CALHOUN, and Pegan Rozar YEARTY. When did Mariann die and who were her parents? Is there any proof of John Sr.'s parents?

GREEN - JONES

Need information on family of Thornberry GREEN who married Celia JONES in 1811 in Granville County, North Carolina. They moved to Hancock County, Georgia by 1820 and were in Jones County, Georgia by 1823. Children, according to 1850 Jones County census were: Lucretia, b.1815 NC; Henry T. b.1828, GA; Thornberry A. b.1831 GA; Rachel, married John ARNOLD in 1830 in Jones County. There may have been two other girls, Sabrina and Mary. A Sabrina GREEN m.Wilkins JACKSON in Jones County in 1834. She may have died c1845 because Wilkins JACKSON married Lively HAMMOCK in 1841. Wilkins and Lively in 1850 Jasper County census with several children including a 7 year old daughter, Celia, who perhaps was named after her grandmother. Living with Thornberry and Celia in 1850 was a 5 year old boy, Jones JACKSON, possibly a grandson to them and son of their daughter, Sabrina. The other girl, Mary, is possibly the Mary GREEN who married Jackson HAMMOCK in Jones County in 1845. A Mary HAMMOCK with two small girls was living next to Thornberry and Celia in 1850. These are deductions gained after studying the census and marriage records and may be incorrect. Would like to contact anyone working on any of these lines.

On Genealogy

Our generation, while we're young,
Seems greater than the last;
But in the second half of life,
Seeks traces of the past.
Why did we not the questions ask,
Of Grandma, while alive;
Instead of searching now so hard,
Some dusty old archive?
Tinker, tailor, soldier, thief--
Was our grandsire one of these?
Perhaps he was an Indian Chief,
Or born in England's leas.
Perhaps a blend of both these worlds,
The New one and the Old;
Who came to seek his fortune here,
And have his story told.
But whatever be the answers,
This surely you will find:
That whoever were your forebears,
You're still "one-of-a-kind"!

"I think it's a family tree."

RECENT ACQUISITIONS AT WASHINGTON MEMORIAL LIBRARY

POLICY: The Central Georgia Genealogical Society, Inc., during 1987 discontinued the maintenance of a Society Library. The holdings in our Library were small and duplicated publications held in the Genealogical and Historical Room, Washington Memoral Library, Macon, GA which has one of the largest collections in the southeast. The Macon Library is centrally located within the 27 county jurisdiction of our society and can far better serve our membership. All publications previously held were presented to Willard L. ROCKER, Head Librarian at the Genealogical and Historical Room. All publication received by our society as gifts, donations, by exchange programs or for book reviews will be presented to the same library. Since 1987, it has been our policy to support the Macon Library particularly in the acquisition of microfilms of early county records within our jurdisctional area. We hope to expand our support as future conditions permit. As a service to our membership, this column list the acquisition of all records since the previous Quarterly. Inquiries with SASE (business size) may be addressed to the library at 1180 Washington Ave., Macon, GA 31201.

William R. HENRY, Assistant Editor

NOTE: The genealogical collection of this library contains 16,000 books, 5900 microfilms, 1500 microfiche, 259 Maps and 60 subscriptions. The library serves 11,000 visitors annually. During 1989 they came from 34 states, DC, and 4 foreign countries.

JOYNER FAMILY BIBLE

Contributed by: Martha Jane HAMPTON, [redacted]

The JOYNER family Bible is about 11 by 16 inches and has been rebound. It is entitled, THE REV'D DR. WRIGHT'S COMPLETE BRITISH FAMILY BIBLE. The Book of Genesis and the first seven chapters of Exodus are missing, therefore there is no title page. The typeset uses the "fs" combination of the double "s", and where there is only one "s" and "f" is used. On the captions under the engravings depicted throughout the Bible the "S" is printed as an "S". The names and dates of the Joyner children are obviously written at the same time, and were written in the brown or sepia ink in the old caligraphy style, and were written on the first blank page in the Bible. The rest of the information found in the Bible is written at a different time and with a different kind of ink and by different people. As yet I do not know the connection of the Joyner family and the other surnames mentioned.
The information is as follows:

Elizabeth Joyner, b.7 Dec.1770?, d.15 Jan.1770
Mary Joyner, b.15 Jan.1772
Ezekiel Joyner, b.9 Jul.1774

YOUNGBLOOD - MCNEIL

Searching for records of Abraham YOUNGBLOOD who lived in Columbia County, GA from 1790-1822, when he moved to Monroe County, GA. He owned land there jointly with his daughter and son-in-law Rebecca and Benjamin FULLER. He was listed on the 1830 census and the 1834 Tax Digest of Monroe County, GA. About 1835/36, Abraham moved to Sumter County, GA, where he died in summer of 1847. He married Amy McNEIL on 1 March 1787 in Richmond County, GA. Abraham (or Abram) was the son of John YOUNGBLOOD, Jr. and his wife Mary. Amy was the daughter of Daniel and Sarah McNEIL of Columbia County, GA. Amy died between 1830 and 1840. Their children: Henry, Hiram D., Thornton M., daughters; Sarah Youngblood DYKES, Rebecca Youngblood FULLER, Matilda Youngblood COCHRAN, Elizabeth Youngblood FREEMAN, and (perhaps) Maria Youngblood BUCKNER. After 1840, Abraham married again, and this marriage produced Abraham, Jesse, and Melissa YOUNGBLOOD. Any help on this family would be appreciated.

SCARBOROUGH

Need information on Addison SCARBOROUGH of Burke County, GA, born c1780 in SC, parents unknown. According to 1805 GA Land Lottery, Addison moved to GA by 1803, and at that time he was single. He married c1804/05, wife's name unknown. He was also listed as a resident of Burke County in the 1807 GA Land Lottery, but he did not claim his land in Wilkinson (later Laurens) County. The two above lotteries are the only records of Addison in Georgia that I can find, although he had sons born in that state in 1805, 1808 and 1816/17.
NOTE: This man should not be confused with son of David SCARBOROUGH of Edgecombe County, NC, nor is he the son of Major Addison SCARBOROUGH, Sr. of Sumter District, SC.

WARD

Need information on Elisha WARD, who lived in Twiggs County, GA in 1818, moved to what became Butler County, AL in 1818/1819 and lived in what became Lowndes County, AL in 1830. Need to find Georgia records. Was he the same Elisha living in Jefferson County, GA c1799-1805? His (maybe second) wife's name was Jane W., maiden name unknown.

BLANKS - HILL

Looking for records of William BLANKS in Baldwin County, GA between 1805 and 1816. William born c1760, Pittsylvania County, VA, son of Henry and Naomi BLANKS. He was a Captain during the Revolutionary War, serving in NC. He married in VA in 1782 and was living in Wilkes County, GA by 1785, moving to Greene County, GA by 1790/91. He married Jane HILL, daughter of John HILL in 1799. William BLANKS drew land in Baldwin County, GA in 1805 lottery, and must have moved onto it soon afterwards, for he was listed as a resident of Baldwin County on the 1810 tax digest. However, by 1816 he was back in Greene. William and Jane's children were: William Henry, W. Ezekiel, and Seleba BLANKS, Matilda Blanks HARRIS, and Martha P. GASTON. Jane died c1816, and William married again c1818/19 to Nancy YOUNG. They had sons Henry Edward and Jefferson BLANKS. Captain William BLANKS died in 1823.

John HILL, father of above Jane HILL, was living in Greene County, GA in 1788/99 and remained there until his death in 1817. When born? where? parents? his wife? He had sons Joseph, Robert, and perhaps John HILL, Jr. and daughters Jane Hill BLANKS, Cynthia Hill CAMPBELL, Sarah Hill RILEY, Lilly Hill ASKEW, Mary Ann Hill BLANKS, and Elizabeth, Martha, and Ann HILL. Any information would be appreciated.

Believed to have been married with a male child in 1830, Houston County, GA. m#2 to Ginnette (Janette)--JOHNSON who had a child, Narcissa Jane, by previous marriage. Alfred and Janette had the following children: Martha C. PENNY c1836; Seaborn PENNY c1840; Mary Emily PENNY, Feb.1844; Ginnett PENNY c1845, and William Marshall PENNY c1854.

Asst. Editor's Note: This concludes the 1989-1990 Research Directory and Membership Roster. The Society has adopted a plan to publish a new directory with roster every two years. Beginning on or about 1 November 1991, when we forward new membership card for 1992, we will include new research forms to all current 1991 members. At that time you may update and resubmit your list of ancestors. On or about 1 March 1992 we will publish the 1991-1992 Research Directory.

PETITIONS, WRITS, WARRANTS, BAIL AFFIDAVITS, ETC. 1830-1846 FROM MISCELLANEOUS COURT RECORDS OF CRAWFORD COUNTY, GA.

Contributed by: Mr. William R. HENRY, 6[redacted] V[redacted]

SOURCE: This unnamed book consists of 495 unnumbered and unindexed pages of court minutes from March Term 1830 through November Term 1846 containing Petitions, Writs, Warrants served, Bail Affidavits, and other actions. Only a few entries pertain to debt cases found in the CGGS book published in 1989 as "INFERIOR COURT RECORDS FOR CRAWFORD COUNTY, GA (COUNTY & COURT PURPOSES 1830-1846 & 1846-1863)." The court house at Knoxville burned in February 1830 and destroyed all earlier records of this type. These papers were apparently held in loose form until final Inferior Court disposition. The record book was not immediately available, therefore the order of entry show dates of disposition that vary several years. By use of a computer, the entries were resequenced by disposition date.

RECENT ACQUISITIONS AT WASHINGTON MEMORIAL LIBRARY

POLICY: The Central Georgia Genealogical Society, Inc., during 1987 discontinued the maintenance of a Society Library. The holdings in our Library were small and duplicated publications held in the Genealogical and Historical Room, Washington Memoral Library, Macon, GA which has one of the largest collections in the southeast. The Macon Library is centrally located within the 27 county jurisdiction of our society and can far better serve our membership. All publications previously held were presented to Willard L. ROCKER, Head Librarian at the Genealogical and Historical Room. All publication received by our society as gifts, donations, by exchange programs or for book reviews will be presented to the same library. Since 1987, it has been our policy to support the Macon Library particularly in the acquisition of microfilms of early county records within our jurisdictional area. We hope to expand our support as future conditions permit. As a service to our membership, this column list the acquisition of all records since the previous Quarterly. Inquiries with SASE (business size) may be addressed to the library at 1180 Washington Ave., Macon, GA 31201.

William R. HENRY, Assistant Editor

NOTE: The genealogical collection of this library contains 16,000 books, 5900 microfilms, 1500 microfiche, 259 Maps and 60 subscriptions. The library serves 11,000 visitors annually. During 1989 they came from 34 states, DC, and 4 foreign countries.

RECLAIMING YOUR ANCESTORS' ANCIENT TITLES

*By Wayne B. Yeager
Baron of Montfort

While titles of nobility usually conjure images of castles, chivalry, and Arthurian fantasy, it is not all that uncommon for the average American genealogist to uncover an ancestor who once held such a title.

Sometimes we middle-class researchers are a little surprised to find a great-great-great grandfather who was a Count or an Earl, but it is not as rare an occurrence as you might think. Ideally, titles are passed from father to eldest son, but sometimes the title-holder has no male heirs, or heirs at all, and the title becomes "abeyant" or dormant until a worthy relative comes along and exercises his or her claim. (Yes, ladies, in these more democratic times, you can inherit a title as well.) Usually, after the title goes unclaimed for a generation or two, the family forgets all about it, and this is where you come in.

An ancestor of mine held the title of Baron of Montfort a few centuries ago, and I decided to find out if it was possible for me to rehabilitate that title. During my quest, I discovered that there are thousands of extinct titles in Britain and Europe, and there is in place a legal mechanism that allows you, if you descend from a baron, viscount, count, earl, marquis, or duke, to become the next one. Unfortunately, no one had ever written any kind of guide to doing this, so I was on my own.

Once I discovered that my ancestor did indeed hold a noble title, I set about to discover whether or not it was unclaimed. Easier said than done. I knew that people rehabilitating English titles have only to look in Burke's or Debrett's Peerages in the "Extinct Titles" section. But for Continental titles, there is no such directory. After months of research and late-night letter writing, I discovered that the Patriarchate of Antioch, the authority that rehabilitates such titles, maintains a council of researchers, genealogists, and heraldry experts, so once you write them, they'll take care of the rest. At the time, however, I didn't know that.

My next step was to determine the exact procedure and the necessary documents for reclaiming a title. This varies from country to country, but some nations, like England, can be quite strict. In England, you have to supply them with every birth and marriage record from the last titleholder to yourself. Then you have to somehow prove that you are the most worthy heir. Furthermore, you have to be a citizen of a country in the British Commonwealth.

Policies for rehabilitating titles on the Continent are a bit more lax, and usually require that you merely demonstrate your descent from the last title-holder. The staff genealogist of the current monarchs, or other title grantors, will usually arrange the appropriate documents themselves.

Most European titles originate from the Holy Roman Empire, but when the Holy See of Rome showed no interest in adjudicating such titles, the torch was passed to the Holy See of Antioch. The Holy See set up the Council of Westphalia, which investigates and handles all title claims. I was months trying to locate this group, but finally discovered their London address. Now, however, the Holy See of Antioch has been approved for membership in the United Nations as a permanent observer, so they now have a convenient New York address to handle title queries from North America. Their address is: Holy See of Antioch, Attention Westphalian Council, 545 8th Avenue Suite 401, New York, NY 10018.

Remembering high school civics class, you may ask whether or not Americans are allowed to possess titles of nobility. Well, while the Constitution clearly states that the President cannot confer them, it makes no provision for citizens owning them. You probably couldn't get the State Department to include Count So-and-So on your passport, but you can certainly style yourself thusly in any social situation. In fact, I know many Americans now who do just that.

We now come to the inevitable question: Is it worth it? Some countries will rehabilitate titles at no cost to you, but on the other hand, I've heard of people spending up to $450,000 on taxes, genealogical research, legal fees, etc. Rest assured this is an extreme case, but after all the time, expense, and effort, what "good" are titles of nobility? Well, besides the pride and personal satisfaction of ownership, not a whole lot. If you do have legitimate claim to an English title, and are willing to become a Brit, you are eligible for a seat in the House of Lords, the upper house of British Parliament. Also, restaurants and hotels welcome and encourage noble patronage, and having a title certainly facilitates entry into better social circles. And if none of these perks appeal to you, it is just plain fun being introduced as the Duke of This-n-That everywhere you go.

From a purely pragmatic standpoint, title rehabilitation is not exactly cost-effective or practical, but I'm sure you'll find it a rewarding and exciting way to perpetuate your family's noble heritage. And isn't that what you got into genealogy for in the first place?

Along with this article the author submitted a copy of his lineage going back to Sir Baldwin de Montfort, through his son Baron Willem de Montfort and down through Katharine Montfort who married Sir George Bothe. From this point on his lineage follows the Bothe line for two generations, then spelling changes from Bothe to Booth.

His original American ancestor was Richard Booth, (1608-1687) who went to Stratford, Connecticut in 1640. From this ancestor he follows the Booth line for ten generations to himself.

If our readers wish to correspond with the author his address is:

We appreciate the opportunity to publish the Baron's article in our Quarterly.

RECENT ACQUISITIONS AT WASHINGTON MEMORIAL LIBRARY

POLICY: The Central Georgia Genealogical Society, Inc., during 1987 discontinued the maintenance of a Society Library. The holdings in our Library were small and duplicated publications held in the Genealogical and Historical Room, Washington Memoral Library, Macon, GA which has one of the largest collections in the southeast. The Macon Library is centrally located within the 27 county jurisdiction of our society and can far better serve our membership. All publications previously held were presented to Willard L. ROCKER, Head Librarian at the Genealogical and Historical Room. All publication received by our society as gifts, donations, by exchange programs or for book reviews will be presented to the same library. Since 1987, it has been our policy to support the Macon Library particularly in the acquisition of microfilms of early county records within our jurisdictional area. We hope to expand our support as future conditions permit. As a service to our membership, this column list the acquisition of all records since the previous Quarterly. Inquiries with SASE (business size) may be addressed to the library at 1180 Washington Ave., Macon, GA 31201.

William R. HENRY, Assistant Editor

NOTE: The genealogical collection of this library contains 16,000 books, 5900 microfilms, 1500 microfiche, 259 Maps and 60 subscriptions. The library serves 11,000 visitors annually. During 1989 they came from 34 states, DC, and 4 foreign countries.

BOOK REVIEW

Records of the families of BROTHERS, SWAN, BONAR/REEVES, BEARDSLEY, Compiled by William P. Brothers. Published by the compiler, Old Nonpareil Press, 430 Maple Way, Woodside, CA 94062; 1990. 92pp. Softback $15.00

Data on the four families has been gathered from unpublished and previously published sources plus a collection of photographs, newspaper clippings with a very few photocopies of original documents. In regard to the BROTHERS family it is stated: "... the data had to be dug from original sources: mainly Census Records, cemetery records and stones, obituaries, and records compiled and microfilmed at the Mormon Library at Salt Lake City." Data published did not cite which of the above sources it came from.

The book should only be used for clues and all the data verified before accepting it. Since an unusual numbering system was used and the work was not indexed it is very difficult to locate individuals even using the instructions given in the introduction: "This monograph is meant to be used with accompanying genealogy charts. Numbers in parenthesis in this paper refer to names on the chart."

RECONSTRUCTION DAYS IN GEORGIA

Submitted by James W. Turnipseed, Jr.*

The 1870 U S Census for Warrenton County, Georgia contains an enumeration of U S Troops Stationed at Warrenton. Some research was undertaken to determine why the troops were in Warrenton in 1870. This was rewarding research delving into Georgia history I had never studied.

Perhaps a quote from C. Mildred Thompson: Reconstruction in Georgia, Economic, Social, Political 1865-1872 (The Beehive Press, Savannah, GA, 1972) p 3, best illustrates the difficulty of understanding reconstruction days.

> "Reconstruction in Georgia can be understood only by seeing in the first place, what were the effects of the war on the state--how population, white and black, was altered; to what extent a war economy injured the great agricultural and commercial interests and developed or transformed industrial enterprise; what were the resources of the state, it debit and its credit; and in what political temper the people of Georgia met the business of statehood in 1865."

The above recommendation by Thompson is beyond the scope of this article. However, such a study would be of benefit to anyone doing research in this period of time.

According to Kenneth Coleman in his Georgia History in Outline (UGA Press, 1960) Georgia had to be reconstructed three times before finally being readmitted to the union.

Thievery was rampart during this era. Quotes from two other sources will give you an idea of the milder things that went on.

Virginia Hill Wilhait: History of Warren County Georgia 1793-1974. (Wilkes Pub Co 1976) p 184.

> "During the reconstruction period which lasted several years there were troublous times in Warren County just as there were in every county in every southern state.
> "A company of Federal Soldiers was stationed on what was then known as Santon Heights, just outside of the northern boundary of the towns of Warrenton, and the county was under martial surveillance."

Bullock County Chapter, U.D.C., Statesboro: Reconstruction Period in Georgia 1865-1872. (U.D.C., N.d) pp 4-5, 10-11.

> "Warrenton, in Warren county, was considered, during the war, a very safe place, and being at the same time quite accessible, a large quantity of cannon and ordnance, commissary and quartermaster's stores, were kept there. At the surrender they were destroyed or removed, and never fell into the hands of the Yankees, but the town was immediately garrisoned by Federal troops, who made themselves very objectionable to the citizens. In a spirit of retaliation, the young ladies of the place set their wits to work to torment them all they could.

"On one occasion the most popular girls gave a concert and invited all the Yankee officers, who felt much gratified by the compliment, as they well knew how they were hated by the people, but looked sorely crest-fallen when they found they had to listen to nothing but Confederate war songs and battle pieces. At last, when a pretty little sparkling brunette began to sing `The Conquered Banner,' with a shadow upon her bright young face and a tender pathos in her voice, it was too much for the Yankees, and they left the hall in a body; so when the last soft note quivered upon the air, they were all on the outside of the building, lingering around and peeping through the windows. Afterwards they sent the young ladies word that they were going to arrest them. That was just fun for the girls, and they straightway devised some other way to annoy them.

"They went horseback riding with their horses' ears ornamented with tiny Confederate flags; then, at night, they would throw wide open all the windows, sit down to their pianos and sing `Dixie.' `The Bonny Blue Flag,' and other war songs, until they were tired out.

"Their parents, at length, put a stop to this display of patriotism, fearing that the rough soldiers might say something rude to them. Still, the girls found ways to let `all the world' know that they gloried in not being `reconstructed.'

"A mean white man in this county, who sided with the Yankees (belonging to the same class who became Tories in the Revolutionary war), and who had made himself very obnoxious to all decent people by his incendiary talk, was one night peppered with bird shot. It could not hurt him, and was only done to frighten his cowardly soul; but the whole county was at once put under martial law. For years a command of Federal soldiers was stationed in Warrenton. From time to time both officers and men were removed, and an entirely new set took their places. It was feared that if they remained there too long, they might learn to like the people and show them some kindness and sympathy. The life and liberty of every honest white person in the county was at the mercy of the Federal Major in command."

The above gives some historical background and indicates the feelings and attitudes of the inhabitants of the area in the period of the census. We, as genealogists, also need to look at the document for what it is--a source which provides location of an individual.

Observe the places of birth listed and note the indication of whether the parents of each person enumerated were foreign born or not. (This information from any 1870 census can help us in our research.)

Could some of the soldiers enumerated on this census be a lost person being researched by someone? Were you aware that there were such lists of the military in the census records? Are there others, or is this just a fluke?

Preparing this article has raised a lot of questions for which I have only found a few answers. It has been interesting as well as educational. I hope that you will find the census as rewarding as I have and perhaps even having entertainment value.

Data extracted from the census begins on the following page.

Dorsey, James E. MONTGOMERY COUNTY, GEORGIA GENEALOGICAL SOURCE MATERIAL, Georgia 1991. Softcover, 5.5 x 8, 96 pp., $15.00. Order from Magnolia Press, P.O. Box 2921, Gainesville, GA 30503. (Include $2.00 for postage and handling.)

There is an index! A plus in any book on genealogy. The cream of this little book is found in the Montgomery County Memoir, on page 74. This vignette is listed as an unidentified manuscript, but upon reading this delighted and personal account of how a man views his life as a boy, one realizes it is written by Julian Wilkes in the year 1942. A most candid and informative expose' of what life was like in early Montgomery County, this story could have been improved by the proofreader being more careful. There are just too many typographical errors in the story.

Another interesting factor found in this book is the listing of the families supplied with salt during the Civil War. There are lists of widows of deceased Soldiers, widows who have a son or sons in the service and wives of Soldiers now in service.These are in separate lists and could be valuable information to genealogists who are searching Montgomery County.

It is adequately documented and includes information not commonly searched. The type is a bit small and some folk may need a magnifying glass to read it, but overall the book is a valuable research tool and interesting to the reader.

RECENT ACQUISITIONS AT WASHINGTON MEMORIAL LIBRARY

POLICY: The Central Georgia Genealogical Society, Inc., during 1987 discontinued the maintenance of a Society Library. The holdings in our Library were small and duplicated publications held in the Genealogical and Historical Room, Washington Memoral Library, Macon, GA which has one of the largest collections in the southeast. The Macon Library is centrally located within the 27 county jurisdiction of our society and can far better serve our membership. All publications previously held were presented to Willard L. ROCKER, Head Librarian at the Genealogical and Historical Room. All publication received by our society as gifts, donations, by exchange programs or for book reviews will be presented to the same library. Since 1987, it has been our policy to support the Macon Library particularly in the acquisition of microfilms of early county records within our jurisdictional area. We hope to expand our support as future conditions permit. As a service to our membership, this column list the acquisition of all records since the previous Quarterly. Inquiries with SASE (business size) may be addressed to the library at 1180 Washington Ave., Macon, GA 31201.

William R. HENRY, Assistant Editor

NOTE: The genealogical collection of this library contains 16,000 books, 5900 microfilms, 1500 microfiche, 259 Maps and 60 subscriptions. The library serves 11,000 visitors annually. During 1989 they came from 34 states, DC, and 4 foreign countries.

Eastman, Dodge County, Georgia

Contributed by: Mrs. Mamie P. Lancaster, [redacted]

4 Jan.1895: Mr. Allen McLeod died on the 4th inst., an old and respected citizen of about 85 years of age at the time of his death.

18 Jan.1895: Miss Jimmy Pratt of West Point has been visiting Miss Cora Rogers of this city.

News at Empire: Just as we go to press, we learn of the death of Mrs. Dan Sheffield of this city after a lingering illness. She leaves a husband and several small children.

25 Jan.1895: One of the saddest, most heart rending affairs that has occured in the history of Eastman, was the burning to death on Monday night last of little Lula Irene, the 18 months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Burch. The mother had left the room for a few moments to look after her cows and during her absence the baby crawled too near the fire or either a coal popped on her and its clothes were ignited and nearly burned from her when the mother returned. Funeral services were conducted at the Baptist church, Tuesday afternoon. Rev. J. C. Brewton conducted, later the little body was laid to rest in Woodlawn Cemetary.

A Dance near Empire: One of the nicest affairs that has occured in this section for quite awhile was a dance on last Friday night at the residence of Mr. Bartow Kimberly, near Empire. Mr. J. M. Kimberly and brothers furnished the music and there were 32 couples on the floor constantly. Miss Clifford Harrison, Clifford Montgomery and Frank Rogers attended from this city.

Mrs. D. E. Sheffield, who died on Thursday of last week, was buried the following Friday afternoon in Woodlawn Cemetery. Rev. H. C. Combs of Macon performing the sad rites. Among her 3 small children, Mrs. Sheffield leaves a 10 month old baby. Also a bereaved husband.

Obituary: Mrs. Annie Carroll was born in Wilkinson County, Georgia and died in Frazer, Georgia on 6 Dec.1894. She was a member of the Baptist Church at Frazer.

Notice: A Petition will be filed before the General Assembly at the next session to incorporate the town of Younker, Dodge County, Georgia.

1 Feb.1895: Mr. Luther McDaniel, of Dexter, and Miss Alma Warren, married last Sunday night at home of bride's parents, about a mile from Eastman. Rev. J. C. Carr officiating.

Mr. L. W. Baker and Miss Callie McLeod were happily married on the 9th inst. at residence of the bride's father, Mr.J. D. McLeod. G. W. Ryals, Esq. performing the ceremony. Attendants were, Mr. J. E. Calder with Miss Dora Collins, Mr. H. Dowdy with Miss Annie McLeod. After a few days stay in Rhine, the happy couple left for Cecil, Georgia where they will reside.

Mr. Frank Rogers paid his usual weekly visit to Empire last Sunday. Mr. Milton Edwards is undoubtly the happiest man in this section -- it is a 11 pound boy.

8 Feb.1895: On Tuesday night last, at the residence of the bride's parents in this city. Mr. A. L. Parker of Jacksonville, Florida and Miss Clara Latimer were united in marriage, Rev. R. L. Wiggins officiating. The happy couple left on Wednesday night for Virginia, where they will make their future home.

Late on Thursday afternoon of last week, (the 31 instant) our little city was considerably shocked by the report that Mr. J. N. Harper had accidently shot himself. Mr. Harper and his brother-in-law Mr. W. H. Cotter, a few miles from Eastman. On getting back in the buggy, in some manner, Mr. Harper's gun was jarred out and mn the wheel causing the weapon to fire and the entire load to take effect in Mr. Harper's right eye, tearing that side of his head almost completely away. Dr. J. D. Herrman met the wagon out a mile but death had been instantaneous. The body was carried to the residence of Mr. Cotter and remained until Saturday morning, when interred in Woodlawn Cemetery. Rev. R. L. Wiggins and J. C. Brewton performing the last rites. Funeral services were conducted at the Methodist Church.

Mrs. J. B. Culpepper of Macon and Mrs. C. C. Buchanan of Waycross and Mr. R. D. Harper of Stillmore, sister and brother of the deceased Mr. J. L. Clary of Stillmore, father of Mrs. Harper were present. Mr. Harper leaves a young wife and a 13 months old baby. He was an efficient sawyer for Williams Lumber Co. He was a brother to Mr. W. H. Cotter, of this city.

Twelve months support: Georgia-Dodge County, Court of Ordinary Chambers, 28 Jan.1895. The Appraisers appointed on Application of Mary Andrews, widow of G. B. Andrews, for a 12 months support for herself and minor children.

Mr. J. M. Pratt of Empire was here this week. Miss Cora Rogers is visiting Miss Jimmy Pratt of Empire. Miss Fannie Myers of Cochran is guest of Miss Nora Harrell of this city. Miss Fannie Wall has returned from quite an extended visit to friends in Florida.

18 Feb.1895: Messrs French and Pierson of Montano, representing the Viaduct Telephone Company have just finished putting in two lines in our city - one from the Messrs williams Mill to the residence and thence to the depot and another from Dr. Herrmans' Drug store to his residence. It is probable that several of our citizens will put in telephones in the near future.

After living in Hawkinsville for some time, Mr. Fletcher Rogers has decided there is no place like Eastman and has removed his family here and is occupying the house vacated by Mr. A. L. Mumford, who has moved into the house vacated by Mr. L.M.Curry.

15 Feb.1895: Mr. O. Cook of Rhine was here last week. -- Mr. Tom Dowdy was here from Rhine last Saturday. -- Mr. W.W.Thomas of Hawkinsville was over last week. -- Snow was six feet(?) deep in Eastman, Wednesday morning. -- Miss Cora Rogers has returned from her visit to Empire. -- Miss Lola Jessup of Cochran visiting friend here. -- Prof. F. K. Ellis and Mr. L. A. King visited Hawkinsville last week. -- Mr. John McDuffie of Telfair County was among us last week. -- Again is Judge Elias Herrman giving us some of those choice and lovely grins. Another 9 pound girl.

22 Feb.1895: Col. Z. V. Peacock and Miss Bessie Dekle, all of Cochran, were united in the holy state of matrimony, Sunday last 17th. Col. Peacock is a young Lawyer, while the bride is an accomplished and popular Music teacher in the New Ebenezer College.

With us again: We welcome back to Eastman, Mr. Marstella Bush, after an absence during the winter months. He will fire up the ice factory in a few days.

Married at Blackshear: On Tuesday last, at the Presbyterian Church in Blackshear, Miss Pauline Harper, of that city and Mr. John T. Simpson of Atlanta, were united in marriage. The young couple will make their home at No. 467 Whitehall Street, Atlanta, Georgia. Mrs. E.F. Latimer of this city, Aunt of the bride, was in attendance on the marriage.

Another old land mark gone: On Sunday last at his home in this county, Mr. Chas A. Rozar died. Mr. Rozar was the father of the late, Judge J. J. Rozar, who was for many years Ordinary of this county. He was near 89 years of age and spent his entire life in Dodge County.

Herrman paid a business trip to Tennelle this week. -- Mr. W.J.Harrell and family were up from Chauncey this week. -- Miss Jimmy Pratt of Empire is again a guest of Miss Cora Rogers. -- Judge e. J. Otterbonry and daughter Miss Erna of New York are visiting our city, the guest of Mrs. Otterbonry's sister, Mrs. J.D.Herrman.

8 Mar.1895: Invitations are sent out for the marriage of Mr. Will. R. Hall of Cordele and Miss Ina Fisher of this place, at the Methodist Church in this city, next Thursday evening, the 14th inst. Miss Fisher is one of our most charming ladies and Mr. Hall was raised in Dodge County and for many years a citizen of Eastman.

Bloodshed at Chauncey: Our sister town of Chauncey was the scene of a street duel on Saturday evening, between her present and Ex-Marshal, the engagement culminating in painful injuries to both participants. The trouble, as we learn it, grew out of an attempt of Marshal John Clark to arrest Ex-Marshal Perry Brown for some violation of a city ordinance.

Notice - Georgia - Dodge County:
S.M.ROZAR, J.H.HALL, J.J.PHILLIPS and others having made application for a public road commencing at the lower end of C.M.Rozar's lane, in Rawlins Militia district, and running in a North Westerly direction by C.A.Rozar's house, thence in a direction of J.H.Hall's, thence in the direction of M.C.Belflower's house and from thence to run through what is known as the Darl Sweaningaine lane, and to intersect with the Pulaski County line at what is known as the fallen lime sink, which has been marked out by the Road Commissioners appointed for that purpose, as a favorable report made on oath by them. All persons are notified that said new road on and after the 30th day of March 1895, be granted by the Ordinary of said county if no good cause be shown to the contrary. This 5 March 1895.

15 Mar.1895: Murder in Pulaski - A dog caused the murder of a good citizen of Pulaski County on Monday last. It seems that Murd Pipkin killed a dog belonging to John Walker, one of his neighbors. Monday afternoon Pipkin was out in the yard putting up a fence, when Walker came up and asked him about the killing of his dog. Pipkin said that he had done so and added that he would "Kill any suck egg dog." Walker uttered an oath and drew a 38-Calibre pistol. A negro working with Mr. Pipkin tried to interfere, but before he could do so, Walker had fired four shots at Pipkin, all of which took effect and death resulted almost immediately. The Murderer has surrendered to the Authorties and is now under strong guard at Hawkinsville.

Married on Thursday evening, March 7th, at residence of the bride's parents, Mr. J.W.Mathis and Miss Martha Yaun, both of this County were united in marriage, Squire J.O.Thompson, performed the ceremony.

In Memoriam
Rawlins - 9 March 1895:
The Death Angel visited our vicinity on the 24th Ult. and took from our midst, to God who gave it, the spirit of Mr. Charles A. Rozar, better known as "Uncle Charles" Rozar. The deceased was aged 87 years, five months and 26 days and was born and raised in Pulaski County. He was married 3 times and was the father of 15 children, four of whom survive him. About Thirty-Five years ago he united himself with the Missionary Baptist Church of which he lived and died a consistent member.
Bro. Rozar was almost blind for the last twelve years, by reason of a Cataract over his eyes, though his general health was good up to about a year ago. The deceased passed quietly and peacefully on the 24th ult. at 2:20 O'Clock P.M. The funeral services were conducted at the residence at 1 O'Clock Monday, by Rev. Eli W. Evans, who delivered an able and touching sermon. After the funeral service the body was taken to its last resting place in the family burying yard and consigned to the grave in the presence of a large Assembly. Bro. Rozar leaves a devoted wife and four children - all grown and many grand children and other relatives to mourn his sad death. But let us not mourn him but strive all the more to meet the dear old brother in the new Jerusalem, where the faithful part no more and the voice of the oppressor is not heard. We believe Br. Rozar died in the faith that was once delivered to the saints and if so.

Why do we mourn departed friends or shake at Death's alarm?
Tis but the voice that Jesus sends to call them to his arms.
Are we not tending upward too,
as fast as thine can move?
Nor would we wish the hours more slow
To keep us from our home.
A Brother and Friend

Research done by Beulah Viola White Cruthirds.

Today, 3 Aug.1991, we, the descendants of William Ragan Galloway, met here at Advance Cemetery in Lamar County, Mississippi, near the Marion County Line, just off the road between Hattiesburg and Collumbia, MS to place a memorial Marker to one who choose to come to the Pinny Woods to live after the death of his wife, Sarah Jane Cleveland in 1887, Kemper County, MS. It has been almost One Hundred Years since he died, up here on County Line Road. This marker is is dedicated to all his descendants, may it remind us "That we too must pass this way". I would like to call special attention to some of the Historical Societies whose members are descendants of or related to this man: "Sukey Hart Chapter DAR", Warner Robins, Georgia; "20th Star DAR", Hattiesburg, Mississippi; "Picayune Chapter DAR", Picayune, Mississippi, and "Atlanta Chapter SAR", Atlanta, Georgia. As a child I liked to visit Advance with my grand mother, Mary Louisa Rutledge. She told me, my husband, your grandfather has a grandfather buried right over there, look to the East, toward the creek. he was grandfather to your Great Aunt Nan Miller, too. His name was William Ragan Galloway, born in Elbert County, Georgia. His father was William Galloway of Elbert County, Georgia. His mother was Mary "Polly" Ragan. He was the grandson of Matthew Galloway, Rev. Sol. of Oglethorpe County, GA. and his wife was Betsy Beaver.

I had an opportunity to learn about this man in 1929 when I visited his daughter, Jane Galloway Germany at Union, Mississippi for three days. Great Aunt Ida Jones encouraged me to go by train "so that I may learn about my grandfathers people (she was his sister). She had the largest Bible I had ever seen. Written in German. There were thirty pages of family record which I copied. She told of the Wagon Train of 1852 from Elbert County, Georgia to Decatur, Newton County, Mississippi. William R. Galloway was on that train, he had four children at that time. The Wagon Master was his father-in-law, James M. Cleveland, wife Pennina Hailey, daughter of John Hailey and Mary "Polly" Underwood, granddaughter of Rev. Sol. William Hailey and grand daughter of Rev. Sol. Joseph Underwood. There are other Rev. Sol. kin of the Galloways and Clevelands. The first time Jane saw Obediah Rutledge was at their home in the New Ireland Community, on the road between Union and Philadelphia, Mississippi. Three sisters were playing in the yard when horse hoofs were heard in the lane. Soon a Bay horse appeared with a large man with redish brown hair and beard. He had come to see William R., her father. The sisters argued as to whom he had come to court. They learned that Obe was born in Tennessee. That he had married Pauline Wooten of Carthage, Mississippi and she had just died leaving a little girl, Matildia and that his family lived at Pidgeon Creek in Winston County, Mississippi. The Rutledge families were builders of Under-Shot Water Mills, it took two years to build one just completed at Carthage, Mississippi. Now they were to build on at Sebastopol, Mississippi.

Land became available in Georgia about the time of the Revolution. Galloway related families came into Oglethorpe, Hart and Elbert Counties, Georgia. There is much information available in County Histories, census records, county records and family record books. Here are a few facts that may start your interest to see what you can learn about your roots.

Who was William Ragan Galloway that married Sarah Jane Cleveland? He was the son of William Galloway and Mary "Polly" Ragan, grandson of Matthew Galloway and "Detsy" Beaver, Rev. Sol. from SC. Sarah Jane was the daughter of James Madison Cleveland and Pennina Haley, she was the daughter of John Hailey and Mary "Polly" Underwood, daughter of Judge Joseph Underwood and Winfred Henderson, born in Yorkshire, England, a Rev. Sol. and there is a book on him. James M. Cleveland son of John Cleveland and Rhoda Kidd, daughter of Webb Kidd and Elizabeth White a Rev. Sol. Elizabeth White daughter of Jeremiah White and Mary Martin. John Cleveland son of Jocob Cleveland Milly White daughter of Jeremiah White and Mary Martin whose father was Absoln Martin, Rev. Sol. from New Hampshire.

There are at least six or more Rev. Sol. on this part of the Rutledge family and all are Galloway related.

Galloway is in many history books; Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi, Tennessee, Texas, Arkansas and New Mexico. The first Missionary to China was Wm R. cousin from Kosciusko, Mississippi, Charles Galloway.

The Galloways came to Mississippi on Wagon Train of 1852 from Elbert County, Georgia. After the Civil War another train took some of them to Texas c1870. James M. Cleveland died at Kobble, TX and I have a picture of his grave. The land became available in Pinny Woods, Marion County, Mississippi about 1871 and some moved here in 1885 and others as late at 1900.

I have six generations of my mothers family buried here, including my parents. May what we do here today inspire others to mark the graves of those who came before us. God Bless each and every one of you. Beulah

TURNER

Need help in documenting that Jesse TURNER was the son of Abisha TURNER. Jesse was a chain carrier for Abisha in 1815-16, Bulloch Co., GA. Abisha TURNER d. Jan 1826. Benjamin TURNER and John MATHIS were appointed guardians of minor children: James, John W., and Arthur. In Mar 1826, they relinquished and Jesse TURNER was appointed guardian. Other sons and a daughter were living in Bulloch Co., GA, who could have been appointed guardian; yet, Jesse, living in Appling Co., GA, was guardian. When some of Abisha's land was sold in 1844, all children were listed except Jesse. Had Jesse already received his inheritance? If Jesse wasn't Abisha's son, why was he appointed guardian of Abisha's minor sons? One of the sons, James, went to FL at the same time as Jesse. When James died, Jesse Jr. was Adm. of the estate. The heirs were the heirs of Abisha. Neither Jesse nor any of his brothers or sisters received anything from James's estate. What was the relationship between Jesse TURNER and Abisha TURNER?

To CGGS

Dear Ladies and Gentlemen:

With this letter I will give you some informations. I am searching in a part of the northern region of Germany. At the end of this letter you find a detailed list of all records I have or know about: oo(marriage), x(birth), +(death).

I am 39 years old and work at the Courthouse in Bremerhaven as a secretary. I promise you, that I am fair (sincere). I do all the searching in my sparetime. In the past 10 years I collected a lot of information from the churchbooks. If necessary or by request I can give photostats of the churchbooks, but only about the following years: 1715-1726, 1746, 1751, 1752, 1759-1852.

About some villages I have also data after 1900 to nearly the present time or before the beginning of the churchbooks. I would be glad, if I hear from you. Also I would be glad, if you can publish my name with my search-work in your publication of your organization and furthermore can give me addresses of people (or give my address to them) who want to know more about their ancestors of the villages I am working on.

By request I will go searching in other villages in northern Germany. I am very interesting in helping other people in return for a little remuneration (10 Dollar per hour of work plus mileage and postage).

For the village Misselwarden I have put together an Ortssippenbuch (village lineage book). The volume is 334 pages and contents all families between 1680-1900. It cost 40 Dollar incl. postage (Surface mail). Air mail 10 Dollar especially. Are you interested in buying such a book?

If you or anybody else send me money, please as a Dollar Bill (cash), because the german banks exact a large service fee for handling of foreigh checks if you send me one. For this I have to claim 10 Dollar especially.
Thank you for your attention.

Sincerely,
/s/ Hans-Joachim Hinners

Remarks: Diseases which have been most prevalent are Typhoid Fever and Pneumonia and Putred Sore Throat. The causes in most cases must be attributed to exposure. The water pure from stone and in summer is to a weary and warm laborer very delightful. The soil is productive and the growth is oak and hickory with a small portion of pine. The mussels are good and the people are in favor of internal improvement which they now have in splended operation. In short Division No. 60 might be considered as a leading star of our native state Georgia.

RECENT ACQUISITIONS AT WASHINGTON MEMORIAL LIBRARY

POLICY: The Central Georgia Genealogical Society, Inc., during 1987 discontinued the maintenance of a Society Library. The holdings in our Library were small and duplicated publications held in the Genealogical and Historical Room, Washington Memoral Library, Macon, GA which has one of the largest collections in the southeast. The Macon Library is centrally located within the 27 county jurisdiction of our society and can far better serve our membership. All publications previously held were presented to Willard L. ROCKER, Head Librarian at the Genealogical and Historical Room. All publication received by our society as gifts, donations, by exchange programs or for book reviews will be presented to the same library. Since 1987, it has been our policy to support the Macon Library particularly in the acquisition of microfilms of early county records within our jurisdictional area. We hope to expand our support as future conditions permit. As a service to our membership, this column list the acquisition of all records since the previous Quarterly. Inquiries with SASE (business size) may be addressed to the library at 1180 Washington Ave., Macon, GA 31201.

William R. HENRY, Assistant Editor

NOTE: The genealogical collection of this library contains 18,740 books, 6300 microfilms, 5200 microfiche, 259 Maps and 60 subscriptions. The library serves 11,500 visitors annually. During 1990 they came from 38 states, and 5 foreign countries.

His terms will be twenty-five cents for meals and half-price when fish are furnished for fry. He will also have prepared fresh bait on short notice.

Chips from Chester -- Last Sunday, Mr. Ashley Woodard of Laurens county stole away the daughter of Mr. H. K. PASSMORE and they were married.

Colcord and Miss Sallie Bacon, at the Baptist Church at 1 O'clock on Wednesday afternoon, Rev. J. C. Brewer performed the marriage ceremony --- ect. Miss Sallie Bacon was the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. E. H. Bacon. Mr. Reppard Colcord, the groom, was the only son of Mr. J. T. Colcord of Amoskeag.

On Thursday evening of last week, about 7:40 O'clock, the spirit of Rev. R. S. Johnston passed peacefully away. The deceased was a Baptist Minister of this county and at the time of his death was Chaplain of the Amoskeag Convict Camp. He leaves a wife and three children to mourn his death.

Dr. H. S. Maloy who recently graduated with honors from the Atlanta Medical College has located in Rhine, Georgia.

On last Sunday, 23 June, at the residence of Mr. Wm. Hatcher at Amoskeag. Mr. Campbell K. Williamson and Miss Hattie E. Boswell were united in marriage. Rev. J. C. Brewton officiating.

Book Review

Our member, Lee M. Elder of [redacted] has compiled and published a GENEALOGY OF THE ELDER CLAN. This is a most comprehensive volume which begins with Peter Elder, Sr., who died in 1674 in Rappanannock County, Virginia, and covers all known members of the Elder clan, including about 2,050 other families who married into the Elder family, down to the present day.

We could criticize Mr. Elder for using extra small print in this book and not putting it in a nice cover, but, he had a lot of information to get into print and he took the most economical means of doing just that. The old long-standing axiom of having one-inch margins was not considered of importance -- only the size of the paper and computer limitations to print from edge to edge. To have done otherwise the book would have cost fifty dollars, or more, instead of the $25.00 which Mr. Elder is offering to sell it for.

For anyone interested in the Elder genealogy this book is a bargain! The price is $25.00 and may be ordered from Mr. Elder at the above address.

We wish to thank Mr. Elder for the copy furnished to the Central Georgia Genealogical Society for review. We will place our copy in the Genealogy Department of the Washington Memorial Library in Macon, Georgia.

Non-Profit
Tax Exempt
Org. GA

ORGANIZATION: The CENTRAL GEORGIA GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, Inc. was organized in October 1978 by James T. Martin of Warner Robins, Georgia. In February 1981 the Society was incorporated as a non-profit organization under the law of the State of Georgia. The U.S. Internal Revenue Service has determined that the society is a tax-exemption organization under Section 501(c), U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1954. The Society is governed by a Board of Directors consisting of the elected and appointed officers and six elected Directors.

AREA: The Society's geographical area of primary interest consists of twenty-seven contiguous counties located in central Georgia. They are: BALDWIN, BIBB, BLECKLEY, CRAWFORD, CRISP, DODGE, DOOLY, HOUSTON, JOHNSON, JONES, LAMAR, LAURENS, MACON, MONROE, MONTGOMERY, PEACH, PIKE, PULASKI, TAYLOR, TELFAIR, TREUTLEN, TWIGGS, UPSON, WASHINGTON, WHEELER, WILCOX and WILKINSON.

PURPOSE: The purposes for which the corporation is organized are:

To collect, preserve and disseminate knowledge and information with reference to genealogical and related historical, biographical and heraldic data;

To inculate and promote interest in research in these fields;

To stimulate and provide instruction in the use of efficient methods and the adherence to principles of accuracy and thoroughness in research;

To champion ethical standards and to discourage and oppose incompetent and disreputable practices or researchers;

To foster careful documentation and otherwise promote scholarly writing;

To issue publications, and

To promote the collection and the preservation of local records which are of genealogical or historical value.

MEMBERSHIP: Membership in the Society is open to any person interested in promoting the objectives stated above. Annual dues for 1992 are: $20.00 for individual membership; $25.00 for family membership (husband and wife, or two related persons in same household).

TRAINING: At least twice each year the Society conducts classes for beginner genealogists. These classes are free for members in good standing.

WORKSHOP: The Society plans to hold an all day workshop once each year, complete with exhibits, for members and the public. The registration fee will be set to cover the Society's cost and may vary from year to year, depending upon prices charged for food, meeting facilities, speaker fees, etc.

PROJECTS: The Society undertakes special projects for preservation of genealogical and historical information, such as: microfilming old newspapers, abstracting and publishing county court records, federal census records, cemetery records, etc.

PUBLICATIONS: The Society publishes a monthly NEWSLETTER and a QUARTERLY. The QUARTERLY is published four times per year as number 1 thru 4 and is mailed to all members in good standing. The annual volume number represents the years in existence. Many other societies, who are members, receive our QUARTERLY. QUERIES, from members only, are published in the QUARTERLY free of charge. There is no limit as to the number of queries which a member may submit. BOOK REVIEWS are published when a copy of the book has been received by the Society. After review these books are donated to the Genealogical and Historical Room, Washington Memorial Library, Macon, GA., whose holdings are one of the largest in the southeast. Members are encourage to submit ARTICLES FOR PUBLICATION in the QUARTERLY, and extra long articles may be serialized. The QUARTERLY is not copyrighted and anyone is welcome to make proper use of the contents; however, the use of articles quoted from other published sources is prohibited without permission from the copyright holder. Appropriate credit will be appreciated. The QUARTERLY is not sold by subscription. Current and back issues may be purchased from the Society when available. The Society welcomes the opportunity to publish FAMILY PEDIGREE CHARTS for members. Minimum coverage of four generations is required. Our computer designed charts provided for as much information on the fifth generation as the second, third and fourth - most charts provide much less. Give us as much complete information as possible on available forms and separate paper.

MEETINGS: The Society holds regular monthly meetings with planned programs. In addition to the program, time permitting, a question and answer session is usually conducted for the benefit of members who have a problem with their research, or who has found a better way for accomplishing their work. Visitors and guest are always welcome to attend regular meetings of the Society. Our current membership covers many states and we invite you to join our Society. RECENT ACQUISITIONS AT WASHINGTON MEMORIAL LIBRARY

POLICY: The Central Georgia Genealogical Society, Inc., during 1987 discontinued the maintenance of a Society Library. The holdings in our Library were small and duplicated publications held in the Genealogical and Historical Room, Washington Memoral Library, Macon, GA which has one of the largest collections in the southeast. The Macon Library is centrally located within the 27 county jurisdiction of our society and can far better serve our membership. All publications previously held were presented to Willard L. ROCKER, Head Librarian at the Genealogical and Historical Room. All publication received by our society as gifts, donations, by exchange programs or for book reviews will be presented to the same library. Since 1987, it has been our policy to support the Macon Library particularly in the acquisition of microfilms of early county records within our jurisdictional area. We hope to expand our support as future conditions permit. As a service to our membership, this column list the acquisition of all records since the previous Quarterly. Inquiries with SASE (business size) may be addressed to the library at 1180 Washington Ave., Macon, GA 31201.

William R. HENRY, Assistant Editor

NOTE: The genealogical collection of this library contains 18,740 books, 6300 microfilms, 5200 microfiche, 259 Maps and 60 subscriptions. The library serves 11,500 visitors annually. During 1990 they came from 38 states, and 5 foreign countries.

CENTRAL GEORGIA GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, INC.
POST OFFICE BOX 2024
WARNER ROBINS GA 31099

Non-Profit
Tax Exempt
Orig. GA

ORGANIZATION: The CENTRAL GEORGIA GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, INC. was organized in October 1978 by James T. Martin of Warner Robins, Georgia. In February 1981 the Society was incorporated as a non-profit organization under the law of the State of Georgia. The U.S. Internal Revenue Service has determined that the society is a tax-exemption organization under Section 501(c), U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1954. The Society is governed by a Board of Directors consisting of the elected and appointed Officers and six elected Directors.

AREA: The Society's geographical area of primary interest consists of twenty-seven contiguous counties located in central Georgia. They are: BALDWIN, BIBB, BLECKLEY, CRAWFORD, CRISP, DODGE, DOOLY, HOUSTON, JOHNSON, JONES, LAMAR, LAURENS, MACON, MONROE, MONTGOMERY, PEACH, PIKE, PULASKI, TAYLOR, TELFAIR, TREUTLEN, TWIGGS, UPSON, WASHINGTON, WHEELER, WILCOX and WILKINSON.

PURPOSE: The purposes for which the corporation is organized are:

To collect, preserve and disseminate knowledge and information with reference to genealogical and related historical, biographical and heraldic data;

To inculcate and promote interest in research in these fields;

To stimulate and provide instruction in the use of efficient methods and the adherence to principles of accuracy and thoroughness in research;

To champion ethical standards and to discourage and oppose incompetent and disreputable practices or researchers;

To foster careful documentation and otherwise promote scholarly writing;

To issue publications, and

To promote the collection and the preservation of local records which are of genealogical or historical value.

MEMBERSHIP: Membership in the Society is open to any person interested in promoting the objectives stated above. Annual dues are: $20.00 for individual membership and $25.00 for family membership (husband and wife, or two related persons in same household).

TRAINING: At least twice each year the Society conducts classes for beginner genealogists. These classes are free for members in good standing.

WORKSHOP: The Society plans to hold an all-day workshop once each year, complete with exhibits, for members and the public. The registration fee will be set to cover the Society's cost and may vary from year to year, depending upon prices charged for food, meeting facilities, speaker fees, etc.

PROJECTS: The Society undertakes special projects for preservation of genealogical and historical information, such as: microfilming old newspapers, abstracting and publishing county court records, federal census records, cemetery records, etc.

PUBLICATIONS: The Society publishes a monthly NEWSLETTER and a QUARTERLY. The QUARTERLY is published four times per year, issue number 1 thru 4, and is mailed to all members in good standing. The volume number represents the number of years in existence. Other member societies also receive our QUARTERLY. QUERIES, from members only, are published in the QUARTERLY free of charge. There is no limit as to the number of queries which a member may submit. BOOK REVIEWS are published when a copy of the book has been received by the Society. After review, these books are donated to the Genealogical and Historical Room, Washington Memorial Library, Macon, Georgia, whose holdings are one of the largest in the southeast. Members are encouraged to submit ARTICLES FOR PUBLICATION in the QUARTERLY, and extra long articles may be serialized. The QUARTERLY is not copyrighted and anyone is welcome to make proper use of the contents; however, the use of articles quoted from other published sources is prohibited without permission from the copyright holder. Appropriate credits will be appreciated. The QUARTERLY is not sold by subscription. Current and back issues may be purchased from the Society when available. The Society welcomes the opportunity to publish FAMILY PEDIGREE CHARTS for members. A minimum coverage of four generations is required. Our computer designed charts provide for as much information on the fifth generation as the second, third and fourth - most charts provide much less in the third and fourth generations. Give us as much complete information as possible on your pedigree form, attaching extra pages when necessary.

MEETINGS: The Society holds regular monthly meetings with planned programs. In addition, time permitting, a question and answer session is usually conducted for the benefit of members who have a problem with their research, or who has found a better way for accomplishing their work.
Visitors and guests are always welcome to attend regular meetings of the Society. Our current membership comes from many states and we invite you to join our Society. For a membership application write to the Corresponding Secretary at the address shown in the above heading.

CGGS MEMBERSHIP RESEARCH DIRECTORY 1991–1992

This directory contains a list of ancestors being researched by members, of the Central Georgia Genealogical Society, current for the years 1991 and/or 1992. The directory was last published in CGGS Quarterly Vol 12, No. 1 (1990) for members current for the years 1989 and/or 1990. Ancestors in that directory are not repeated here unless they were resubmitted. If more than one submission was received, only the latest is included. Use the "member" number, in the right hand column, to find the member's name and address in the CGGS Membership Roster 1991-1992, which follows on page 24. An (*) following the "member" number indicates research if for African-American families.

James Abingdon EVERETT (1788-1848); Will published in History of Peach County, Georgia, DAR, Fort Valley, GA, 1972, pp. 68-73; mentioned his siblings and other relations. Interested in corresponding with descendants of remote families. It appears JAE's origins were in Bertie Co., NC, 1788, and family surname was recorded as AVERET, AVERITT, and numerous alternate spellings. Interested in developing information among descendants who connect to EVERETT or AVERETT surnames of NC & GA, as well as TURNER, ABINGDON (ABBINGTON), FURLOW, BYNUM, GREENE. Among several plantations owned by James Abingdon EVERETT was "Hog Crawl," Montezuma, Macon Co., GA. Can anyone give me the exact location of "Hog Crawl"? Was it originally one of the BARNARD Reserves set aside in the Treaty with the Creek Nation in 1821? James Abingdon EVERETT's first wife was Cussena BARNARD, d/o Chief Timpoochee BARNARD. Is her grave marked in Montezuma or on plantation where she was killed by a falling limb? Interested in her pedigree.

RECENT ACQUISITIONS AT WASHINGTON MEMORIAL LIBRARY

POLICY: The Central Georgia Genealogical Society, Inc., during 1987 discontinued the maintenance of a Society Library. The holdings in our Library were small and duplicated publications held in the Genealogical and Historical Room, Washington Memoral Library, Macon, GA which has one of the largest collections in the southeast. The Macon Library is centrally located within the 27 county jurisdiction of our society and can far better serve our membership. All publications previously held were presented to Willard L. ROCKER, Head Librarian at the Genealogical and Historical Room. All publication received by our society as gifts, donations, by exchange programs or for book reviews will be presented to the same library. Since 1987, it has been our policy to support the Macon Library particularly in the acquisition of microfilms of early county records within our jurisdictional area. We hope to expand our support as future conditions permit. As a service to our membership, this column list the acquisition of all records since the previous Quarterly. Inquiries with SASE (business size) may be addressed to the library at 1180 Washington Ave., Macon, GA 31201.

William R. HENRY, Assistant Editor

NOTE: The genealogical collection of this library contains 18,740 books, 6300 microfilms, 5200 microfiche, 259 Maps and 60 subscriptions. The library serves 11,500 visitors annually. During 1990 they came from 38 states, and 5 foreign countries.

TITLE INSURANCE FIRMS FACING CLAIMS SQUEEZE

Contributed by: Mr. William R. HENRY, [redacted].

A press release by The New York Times, last November, stated the nation's title insurance industry was facing a recent surge in claims and may not have enough money in reserve. These claims have risen sharpely, to about 12 to 15 cents on every dollar taken in through premiums, from about 3 cents in the mid-1970s. The great bulk of premiums - up to 90 to 95 cents on the dollar - go to pay agents and researchers and to cover home office expenses. So, some insurers are obviously losing money.

Why the recent surge in claims? A phamplet, "Why Lawyers should protect their clients with title insurance," published by Commonwealth Land Title Insurance Company explains it as human error and hidden hazards. Human error is just what it sound like: mistakes made by people recording facts in the records. A clerk could index an instrument out of alphabetical order or under the wrong heading. A name could be misspelled, a document could be omitted or a recording could be delayed so long that another lien takes precedence. The types of human errors is virtually endless. Hidden hazards can pose other serious threats to the validity of title. Fraud, forgery, missing heirs, secret marriages, invalid divorces and incorrect statements are just a few.

Our early ancestors did not have the benefit of title insurance, but many of the same problems existed. They were often in and out of court to settle and many hidden hazards went undetected. Our point: research carefully all possible records pertaining to your ancestors.

ORGANIZATION: The CENTRAL GEORGIA GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, Inc. was organized in October 1978 by James T. Martin of Warner Robins, Georgia. In February 1981 the Society was incorporated as a non-profit organization under the law of the State of Georgia. The U.S. Internal Revenue Service has determined that the society is a tax-exemption organization under Section 501(c), U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1954. The Society is governed by a Board of Directors consisting of the elected and appointed officers and six elected Directors.

AREA: The Society's geographical area of primary interest consists of twenty-seven contiguous counties located in central Georgia. They are: BALDWIN, BIBB, BLECKLEY, CRAWFORD, CRISP, DODGE, DOOLY, HOUSTON, JOHNSON, JONES, LAMAR, LAURENS, MACON, MONROE, MONTGOMERY, PEACH, PIKE, PULASKI, TAYLOR, TELFAIR, TREUTLEN, TWIGGS, UPSON, WASHINGTON, WHEELER, WILCOX and WILKINSON.

PURPOSE: The purposes for which the corporation is organized are:

To collect, preserve and disseminate knowledge and information with reference to genealogical and related historical, biographical and heraldic data;

To inculate and promote interest in research in these fields;

To stimulate and provide instruction in the use of efficient methods and the adherence to principles of accuracy and thoroughness in research;

To champion ethical standards and to discourage and oppose incompetent and disreputable practices or researchers;

To foster careful documentation and otherwise promote scholarly writing;

To issue publications, and

To promote the collection and the preservation of local records which are of genealogical or historical value.

MEMBERSHIP: Membership in the Society is open to any person interested in promoting the objectives stated above. Annual dues for 1992 are: $20.00 for individual membership; $25.00 for family membership (husband and wife, or two related persons in same household).

TRAINING: At least twice each year the Society conducts classes for beginner genealogists. These classes are free for members in good standing.

WORKSHOP: The Society plans to hold an all day workshop once each year, complete with exhibits, for members and the public. The registration fee will be set to cover the Society's cost and may vary from year to year, depending upon prices charged for food, meeting facilities, speaker fees, etc.

PROJECTS: The Society undertakes special projects for preservation of genealogical and historical information, such as: microfilming old newspapers, abstracting and publishing county court records, federal census records, cemetery records, etc.

PUBLICATIONS: The Society publishes a monthly NEWSLETTER and a QUARTERLY. The QUARTERLY is published four times per year as number 1 thru 4 and is mailed to all members in good standing. The annual volume number represents the years in existence. Many other societies, who are members, receive our QUARTERLY. QUERIES, from members only, are published in the QUARTERLY free of charge. There is no limit as to the number of queries which a member may submit. BOOK REVIEWS are published when a copy of the book has been received by the Society. After review these books are donated to the Genealogical and Historical Room, Washington Memorial Library, Macon, GA., whose holdings are one of the largest in the southeast. Members are encourage to submit ARTICLES FOR PUBLICATION in the QUARTERLY, and extra long articles may be serialized. The QUARTERLY is not copyrighted and anyone is welcome to make proper use of the contents; however, the use of articles quoted from other published sources is prohibited without permission from the copyright holder. Appropriate credit will be appreciated. The QUARTERLY is not sold by subscription. Current and back issues may be purchased from the Society when available. The Society welcomes the opportunity to publish FAMILY PEDIGREE CHARTS for members. Minimum coverage of four generations is required. Our computer designed charts provided for as much information on the fifth generation as the second, third and fourth - most charts provide much less. Give us as much complete information as possible on available forms and separate paper.

MEETINGS: The Society holds regular monthly meetings with planned programs. These meetings are currently held at the Flint Electric Building, 1600 Elberta Road, Warner Robins, Georgia at 7pm on the third Thursday of each month. In addition to the program, time permitting, a question and answer session is usually conducted for the benefit of members who have a problem with their research, or who has found a better way for accomplishing their work. Visitors and guest are always welcome to attend regular meetings of the Society. Our current membership covers many states and we invite you to join our Society. SPECIAL RECOGNIZATION

JAMES THOMAS MARTIN

Founder & First President
President - 1979 & 1980
Publications Chairman 1981-1992

We wish to express our extreme gratitude to James T. Martin, who resigned from his position as Publication Chairman on 5 April 1992. Jim, from his initial actions in starting the Central Georgia Genealogical Society and carrying out the duties of Publication Chairman, has served us far beyond the normal responsibility of this position. He has also served as Editor of our Quarterly which has grown from a few pages to 50-60 pages per issue. It's contents have received praise from leading genealogists throughout the US.

Jim's leadership has also fostered the publication of 25 books by our society with outstanding recognition as to subject matter, layout, format, and indexing. Jim started our monthly newsletter which too has grown in size containing news on our society and select items from other genealogical publications.

By his efforts all the forms, membership cards, announcements, form letters, new-member packages, and other printing needs by the society have been laid out and designed. He has also arranged for the purchase of envelopes, stationary, hand stamps, etc., and for our use of publishers and printers.

Jim was always in control and available for consultation on actions delegated to other members of the Publication Committee. For years his home was the scene of many meetings.

Jim has promised to remain available for consultation and advise. He will retain an input to the Quarterly for the Service Directory.

On behalf of the President, Officers, Membership and Members of the Publications Committee, I wish to express our sincere gratitude for his long and faithful service. We wish him well in his retirement and in future endeavors.

William R. Henry
Editor

HOUSTON COUNTY
A BRIEF HISTORICAL ACCOUNT

Mary Hannah McClintic, of [redacted]., while a sixth grade student at Morningside Elementary School, submitted an entry titled "Houston County: A Brief Historical Account" in her school contest in 1991. Her entry complete with title page, table of content, purpose statement, methodology, text pages, bibliography, and credits plus a visual aids display took first place in her class contest, honorable mention in school contest, first place in county contest, best of show in regional contest, and won honorable mention in the state contest. Although Mary Hannah entry was not accurate in every detail, we appreciate her efforts and those of our young people to show their interest in the history and genealogy of their home county. Houston County, GA was created by an act of the General Assembly on 15 May 1821. Mary Hannah begins her story with the act of 21 December 1822 when the county organization was authorized. Her text follows:

On December 21 1822, the General Assembly of Georgia created Houston County, Georgia. Houston County is located in the central part of Georgia. Although its boundaries have changed over the years, in 1980 it covered a total of 380 square miles.

Our county was named after John Houstoun. Even though the spelling is different, changed by dropping the last "u", the pronumciation is the same. Its seems strange to some people that our county is pronounced "Howston", but this is historically correct.

The land in our county was desired by many settlers because there was good water, lots of trees and fertile land. It was given out in lots of 202½ acres. This was done by drawing lots in a lottery, where all eligible people could get unclaimed land for the cost of $19.00. Land lots in Houston County are still 202½ acres (approximately).

Since Houston County attracted a good class of citizens we have a proud heritage in politics. Some of our original representatives have names we still recognize today. Some of our first representatives were: Eli Nunn, Davenport Lawson and John Keener. These are just three men of many whose families have been involved in the growth of our county from its beginning until today. Houston County citizens have a proud history in politics. Some of our better known politicians are: Judge Willis Hunt, who sits on the Georgia Supreme Court, Senator Sam Nunn, a United States Senator, and many others.

We have also been represented in sports, and we have been the proud home of several young ladies to hold the title of Miss Georgia.

The city of Perry was originally called Wattsville. Settled in 1823, the city grew and prospered until the year 1908 when a new charter was issued and the name changed to Perry. It was around this time that Perry was named the county seat because of its central location. The first courthouse was built in 1912.

The community of Hayneville was settled in 1821 and is thought to be the oldest community of Houston County. For years Hayneville was the center for aristocracy. These people were among the highest citizens of all the southern states. The community was especially known for its hospitality, loyalty, gracious manners, kindness to strangers, and highly cultured people. Its homes were large and beautiful and in the style of the old south. The plantations had cabins for the slaves, a house for the overseer, their own blacksmith shop and were capable of meeting almost all the needs of the families. On the plantations, hides were tanned to make shoes for the slaves; farm tools were made in the blacksmith shop; and cloth was made from the cotton grown and was woven for clothing. At one time Hayneville was the home of Joseph Tooke, the largest owner of slaves and the wealthist man in Houston County. His plantation had on it the Houston Cotton Factory, grits mills, a furniture factory, a wagon factory that made wagons for the confederate army, and he even owned a boat.

A one time Hayneville was one of the best trading points in Georgia. It had eight or more stores, a blacksmith shop, a doctor's office, two churches, and an academy. Before and during the Civil War, Hayneville prospered. After the war the magnificent plantations were divided into small farms and sold. They have changed hands many times. As we see, Hayneville is rich in history of our county.

The first known established church in Houston County, possibly the state, is the Hayneville Baptist Church. It was established no later than 1819. Where the church stands today, the pioneer settlers once built a log cabin to worship in. A monthly service was held. People from all around came for the meeting, not only for the sermon, but for the social event. Slaves were invited to join the service but had to sit in a special place.

Prior to the Civil War, people of Houston County sent to Perry, the county seat, for their mail. Later a railroad was built, post offices were formed and the mail was delivered to them by train on a regular basis.

The first schools in Houston County were called the "Old Field Schools" because they were in an old clearing. It was a one room log cabin with no heat in the winter. Children from six and up attended class togeather. They were all taught by one teacher and they studied out loud sitting on rough log benches. School would last about three months a year. The teacher was paid per student. At one time Houston County housed several private academies for the more wealthy citizens. Perry was the location of the Houston Female College, also known as Hayneville Academy.

(Houston County, A Brief Historical Account, cont'd.)

Houston County has long been a center for industrial, agricultural, educational, political and spiritual success and growth. As Houston County citizens we have a heritage to be proud of and one we should all want to learn more of.

(EDITORS NOTE: On 25 November 1824 an act of the General Assembly approved the incorporation of Perry, making it the first official town of the county. At that time a contract was let to James H. Killen to build the first courthouse (two stories) and jail.)

RECENT ACQUISITIONS AT WASHINGTON MEMORIAL LIBRARY

POLICY: The Central Georgia Genealogical Society, Inc., during 1987 discontinued the maintenance of a Society Library. The holdings in our Library were small and duplicated publications held in the Genealogical and Historical Room, Washington Memorial Library, Macon, GA which has one of the largest collections in the southeast. The Macon Library is centrally located within the 27 county jurisdiction of our society and can far better serve our membership. All publications previously held were presented to Willard L. ROCKER, Head Librarian at the Genealogical and Historical Room. All publication received by our society as gifts, donations, by exchange programs or for book reviews will be presented to the same library. Since 1987, it has been our policy to support the Macon Library particularly in the acquisition of microfilms of early county records within our jurisdictional area. We hope to expand our support as future conditions permit. As a service to our membership, this column list the acquisition of all records since the previous Quarterly. Inquiries with SASE (business size) may be addressed to the library at 1180 Washington Ave., Macon, GA 31201.

William R. HENRY, Editor

NOTE: The genealogical collection of this library contains 18,740 books, 6300 microfilms, 5200 microfiche, 259 Maps and 60 subscriptions. The library serves 11,500 visitors annually. During 1990 they came from 38 states, and 5 foreign countries.

Vital records fees to have a price increase

Special to the Sun

By direct order of the state, county vital records fees will be increased. By June 1 a standard statewide fee increase for all vital records services, certified copies and copies of records will be in effect. Probate Judge Frances Annis is trying to notify members of the community of the sudden change.

The new fee schedule is as follows:

•For each individual search for a birth or death record, including one certified copy if found on file - $10.

•For each individual search for a birth record to prepare a short form of certified copy ordered at the same time of the search (excluding the wallet size birth card) - $5 each.

All wallet size copies ordered at any time are $10 each.

•For the first "Certificate of Record" obtained at the same time - $5 each.

•Certificate amendment filing fee - $10.

•Delayed certificate filing fee - $10.

•Completion of a Legitimation/Paternity Acknowledgement fee - $10.

According to Michael R. Lavoie, director of Vital Records and Health Statistics, code section 31-10-27, Vital Records Chapter (OCGA), alllows the Department of Human Resources to "prescribe the fees to be paid for certified copies of certificates or records, for a search of the files or records, for copies or information provided for research, statistical, or administrative purposes, or for other services. The fee for each search or service shall not exceed $10 nor shall the fee for a certified copy of said certificate, record and certification exceed the total sum of $10."

THOMAS DICKSON'S BIBLE

Submitted by: Mr. Bobby F. Stokes, [redacted]
Dated: 8 Mar.1992

Mary Leola Dickson married John Lee Newberry on 28 Nov.1889 in Crawford County, GA. John Lee Newberry was a son of Columbus M. and Mary Elizabeth Marshall Newberry. Mary Leola Dickson was a dau. of Thomas Dickson, Jr., and Mary Jane Hicks who were married 8 Feb. 1853 in Crawford County, GA by John Dickson, J.P. Thomas and Ann McCook Dickson moved to Bibb County, GA c1822 and settled on land on the east side of Knoxville Rd., just before crossing Echeconnee Creek into Crawford County. It was on this land where they died. Josiah Dickson settled on the west side of that road and operated a grist mill at the creek crossing, later known as Henry Newsom's Mill and still later as William J. Marshall's Mill.

John Lee Newberry and Mary Leola Dickson, his wife, bought the home in Lizella, formerly owned by Dr. James H. D. Worsham who had married Margaret Murchison on 20 Dec.1854 in Crawford County, GA. Dr. Worsham had moved to the Vineville section of the City of Macon, GA. John Lee and Leola lived in that house until they died. After their deaths the house was occupied by Anna Lorena (school teacher) and Nellie Mae Newberry, two maiden daus. When these two daus. had died, the house was cleared by heirs and a sheet of business stationary was found among the personal papers of Leola Dickson Newberry which gives the family records from the bible of her grandfather, Thomas Dickson, Sr.

The stationary sheet, with a printed head, is apparently from a business operated by William Green Dickson who had married Rachael McCook and lived at Dorminy's Mills, GA., which I believe is in Irwin County, GA. A piece is torn from the top left of the sheet and is missing. The following is what is seen on the sheet:

??? DICKSON

Added by contributer: Sarah Ann Elizabeth Dickson married Alford Long on 20 Dec. 1835 in Bibb County, GA. She was his first wife and is buried in an unmarked grave in Dickson Methodist Church Cemetery, Crawford County, GA. Elizabeth Dickson is named in the will of her father as "my lame dau."

BOOK CORRECTION

We have been advised that CGGS publication "Wills of Crawford County, Georgia" on page 15 contains an incorrect abstraction. The will listed for David BARNS should read David BOWERS and references therein to all BARNES should read BOWERS. We apologize for any inconvenience this may have caused. However one must understand that miss-spelling and miss-interpretations of names can be made by anyone from the initial preparer, the court clerk, or from reading second generation microfilms of faded court records. GEORGIA 1850 MORTALITY SCHEDULE

(DEATHS OCCURRING BETWEEN 1 JUN.1849 & 31 MAY 1850)

Contributed by: William R. HENRY, [redacted]
Source: Microcopy No. T-655, Roll 7, National Archives.
Remarks: The enumerator recorded deaths on the Mortality Schedule by household visitation in same order and at same time he recorded the Population Schedule and other census schedules. It may be possible to determine in what household a death occurred by cross comparing one's neighbors. We have previously printed the mortality schedule for all counties (except Macon) that existed in 1850 and are in our 27 county jurisdiction. No file exists for Macon County. The following are mortality schedules of counties containing land from which counties within our jurisdiction were later created.

ORGANIZATION: The CENTRAL GEORGIA GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, Inc. was organized in October 1978 by James T. Martin of Warner Robins, Georgia. In February 1981 the Society was incorporated as a non-profit organization under the law of the State of Georgia. The U.S. Internal Revenue Service has determined that the society is a tax-exemption organization under Section 501(c), U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1954. The Society is governed by a Board of Directors consisting of the elected and appointed officers and six elected Directors.

AREA: The Society's geographical area of primary interest consists of twenty-seven contiguous counties located in central Georgia. They are: BALDWIN, BIBB, BLECKLEY, CRAWFORD, CRISP, DODGE, DOOLY, HOUSTON, JOHNSON, JONES, LAMAR, LAURENS, MACON, MONROE, MONTGOMERY, PEACH, PIKE, PULASKI, TAYLOR, TELFAIR, TREUTLEN, TWIGGS, UPSON, WASHINGTON, WHEELER, WILCOX and WILKINSON.

PURPOSE: The purposes for which the corporation is organized are:

To collect, preserve and disseminate knowledge and information with reference to genealogical and related historical, biographical and heraldic data;

To inculate and promote interest in research in these fields;

To stimulate and provide instruction in the use of efficient methods and the adherence to principles of accuracy and thoroughness in research;

To champion ethical standards and to discourage and oppose incompetent and disreputable practices or researchers;

To foster careful documentation and otherwise promote scholarly writing;

To issue publications, and

To promote the collection and the preservation of local records which are of genealogical or historical value.

MEMBERSHIP: Membership in the Society is open to any person interested in promoting the objectives stated above. Annual dues for 1992 are: $20.00 for individual membership; $25.00 for family membership (husband and wife, or two related persons in same household).

TRAINING: At least twice each year the Society conducts classes for beginner genealogists. These classes are free for members in good standing.

WORKSHOP: The Society plans to hold an all day workshop once each year, complete with exhibits, for members and the public. The registration fee will be set to cover the Society's cost and may vary from year to year, depending upon prices charged for food, meeting facilities, speaker fees, etc.

PROJECTS: The Society undertakes special projects for preservation of genealogical and historical information, such as: microfilming old newspapers, abstracting and publishing county court records, federal census records, cemetery records, etc.

PUBLICATIONS: The Society publishes a monthly NEWSLETTER and a QUARTERLY. The QUARTERLY is published four times per year as number 1 thru 4 and is mailed to all members in good standing. The annual volume number represents the years in existence. Many other societies, who are members, receive our QUARTERLY. QUERIES, from members only, are published in the QUARTERLY free of charge. There is no limit as to the number of queries which a member may submit. BOOK REVIEWS are published when a copy of the book has been received by the Society. After review these books are donated to the Genealogical and Historical Room, Washington Memorial Library, Macon, GA., whose holdings are one of the largest in the southeast. Members are encourage to submit ARTICLES FOR PUBLICATION in the QUARTERLY, and extra long articles may be serialized. The QUARTERLY is not copyrighted and anyone is welcome to make proper use of the contents; however, the use of articles quoted from other published sources is prohibited without permission from the copyright holder. Appropriate credit will be appreciated. The QUARTERLY is not sold by subscription. Current and back issues may be purchased from the Society when available. The Society welcomes the opportunity to publish FAMILY PEDIGREE CHARTS for members. Mimimum coverage of four generations is required. Our computer designed charts provided for as much information on the fifth generation as the second, third and fourth - most charts provide much less. Give us as much complete information as possible on available forms and separate paper.

MEETINGS: The Society holds regular monthly meetings with planned programs. These meetings are currently held at the Flint Electric Building, 1600 Elberta Road, Warner Robins, Georgia at 7pm on the third Thursday of each month. In addition to the program, time permitting, a question and answer session is usually conducted for the benefit of members who have a problem with their research, or who has found a better way for accomplishing their work. Visitors and guest are always welcome to attend regular meetings of the Society. Our current membership covers many states and we invite you to join our Society. For a membership application write to the Corresponding Secretary at address shown in the heading above or call (912) 953-3114.

PERFECTIONIST SOCIETY

Contributed by: Mr. William R. HENRY, [redacted]

While doing research on the CRAGIN families of New York state, a line by marriage to one of my wife's cousins, I came upon a very unusual religion somewhat similiar to the early Mormans. Most of the CRAGIN's in America descend from John CRAGIN of Scotland, who settled in Woburn, MA in 1654, are protestant. A number of Irish Catholic CRAGIN's came to America in 1800's. Also most of the Morman CRAGUN's descend from Patrick CRAGUN who came from Ireland about 1760 and after the Boston Tea Party settled in Virginia.

The Putney, Vermont, Corporation of Perfectionists was a religious sect comprised of crusaders whose devoted leader was John Humphrey NOYES, born 3 Sep. 1811. He graduated from Dartmouth College with the highest honors at the age of 19, and begun studing law. He next turned to theology at Andover, then to Yale Divinity School. He founded a "free church" in New Haven, but was soon dismissed, and his license revoked, because it was "too free".

When John NOYES started the "Perfectionist Society", it included his wife, brother, and 2 sisters. By 1843, its members numbered 28 adults and 9 children, all from three houses. They turned out a newspaper called "God's Press", and opened a store and chapel. George CRAGIN (1808-1884), ggg-gs of John CRAGIN of Scotland, and his wife Mary E. JOHNSON, left New York City in 1840/1 with their four children and joined the sect at Putney, VT.

NOYES, preached that only God could cure and heal people. Some seemed to recover through his prayers, but others did not. For a while the group was tolerated in the community. Then NOYES preached "complex marriage", which eliminated fidelity among married people and permitted mating with others, but forbid the conception of children by any such union. The NOYES and CRAGIN's were the first to indulge, and other members soon followed their example. In 1849 NOYES was arrested for adultery, and paid $2,000 bail, declaring that the statutes should be revised to "fit the commonsence tenets of his Perfectionist group".

Mob action against these non-perfectionists was feared, and the sheriff held warrants for the arrest of George and Mary CRAGIN and John NOYES. NOYES' attorney brother-in-law strongly advised that all should leave Putney immediately. NOYES left within the hour. His wife, brother and two sisters stayed to face the music. The CRAGIN's with new-born Victor, left after mid-night in a carriage driven by a 14 year old boy who worked in the store. On crossing the Massachusetts state line, they stopped to thank God for deliverance.

Jonathan BURT, a disciple of John Humphrey NOYES, had tried to start a similiar community on Oneida Creek, in the old Oneida Indian Reservation of New York. About to go bankrupt, he invited NOYES to serve as their leader. They soon repaired the dam, reopened the mill to make furniture, and Mary CRAGIN started a school in one of three cabins.

Soon many followers of "Father NOYES", arrived from Putney, Vermont, and the colony flourished. The group boasted many artisans such as a stonemason, carpenter, architect, pail maker, landscape artist, spinners, weavers, hat and basket makers. Their one formal meal of the day was breakfast, and the "open pantry" idea, started in Putney, was continued at Oneida.

By the summer of 1849, the colony numbered 51, and they decided to erect a community building called the Mansion House. The building was 188 feet by 70 feet, three stories high, and heated by steam - a new idea in up-state New York. In 1862 they replaced this building with a brick building which still stands today.

During the first 20 years of the Oneida Community the number of births was small. In 1869 there were a number of planned births; this was the first group to "invent and practice a form of birth control. Later, because it believed in the possible improvement of the race by careful selection of parents, it became the first and only experiment in human eugenics." They believed that "the Perfect Life could exist only where there was complete spiritual equality", meaning that all personal property should be shared - including their mates. The aim was a society of one family with all interested in that family.

As a family group they started inventing and making things that they could sell. They went from selling jars of fruit and vegetables to sewing and embroidery silk. One member invented the animal trap which soon spread throughout the world. Charles Adam "Stuart" CRAGIN, b.1841 Putney, VT, s/o George & Mary turned out the first tinned spoon which was the beginning of the Oneida Silverware Industry.

Mary CRAGIN died when the sloop, "Rebecca Ford" sank on the Hudson River in 1851. Mary was on her way to Brooklyn to restart the publishing business after the store and printing office at Oneida had burned.

Charles Adam "Stuart" CRAGIN was mated first with Emily OTIS and second with Marian DUNN. Charles Stuart CRAGIN was born 1876 by the second mating. His father died two years later and he was raised outside the manison house community. He later married Anna Jane ROBERTS and they lived in nearby Sherrill, NY. They had little to do with the "community people". Their son Robert Stuart Cragin (1908-1977), was an early radio announcer for WGY Schenectedy, served at Leyte in WWII and owned and operated an Advertising and Public Relations Business. He married 1937 to Nell Francis Lampman (1909-1983) and their only child Robert Stuart Cragin, Jr (1944-1968), graduated from Georgetown University and later while leading a patrol (Lt. USA) in Vet Nan, was killed and beheaded. My wife & I have his baby book, showing his family tree, with Charles Adam "Stuart" CRAGIN and Marian DUNN as g-grandparents.

Due to outside pressure and the age of its leaders the Oneida Community disolved in 1880 and its assets were formed into a joint stock company to carry on the many businesses - including the Oneida Silverware Company. All businesses, except the silverware "Community Plate", ceased before 1925. All buildings became the property of Oneida Community, Ltd. (changed to Oneida, Ltd in 1933). The manison house has been rebuilt and divided into apartments where many descendant including one CRAGIN's lived when we visited there in 1978.

RECENT ACQUISITIONS AT WASHINGTON MEMORIAL LIBRARY

POLICY: The Central Georgia Genealogical Society, Inc., during 1987 discontinued the maintenance of a Society Library. The holdings in our Library were small and duplicated publications held in the Genealogical and Historical Room, Washington Memorial Library, Macon, GA which has one of the largest collections in the southeast. The Macon Library is centrally located within the 27 county jurisdiction of our society and can far better serve our membership. All publications previously held were presented to Willard L. ROCKER, Head Librarian at the Genealogical and Historical Room. All publication received by our society as gifts, donations, by exchange programs or for book reviews will be presented to the same library. Since 1987, it has been our policy to support the Macon Library particularly in the acquisition of microfilms of early county records within our jurisdictional area. We hope to expand our support as future conditions permit. As a service to our membership, this column list the acquisition of all records since the previous Quarterly. Inquiries with SASE (business size) may be addressed to the library at 1180 Washington Ave., Macon, GA 31201.

William R. HENRY, Editor

NOTE: The genealogical collection of this library contains 18,740 books, 6300 microfilms, 5200 microfiche, 259 Maps and 60 subscriptions. The library serves 11,500 visitors annually. During 1990 they came from 38 states, and 5 foreign countries.

CHART OF TASKS EXECUTOR(S)/ADMINISTRATOR(S) MUST PERFORM

Contributed by: William R. HENRY, [redacted]

Thirteen years ago, I served as Executor to my step-mother's will in Macon, Georgia. At the time I was uninformed and had little knowledge of the things an Executor must do to settle an estate. In my case there were 15 beneficiaries (legatees) named in the will and 15 heirs with only 5 being the same persons. My step-mother left no children, no husband and her parents were deceased. The execution of this will, to say the least, was very complicated. At that time, the Macon Telegraph has printed the chart below and I used it as my guide. The paper has yellowed and a little faded for copy work.

Many of us are reaching or have reached the age where we must perform like duties. Likewise some of us may not have our will in order. I feel this chart is worthy of publication for the benefit of our members.

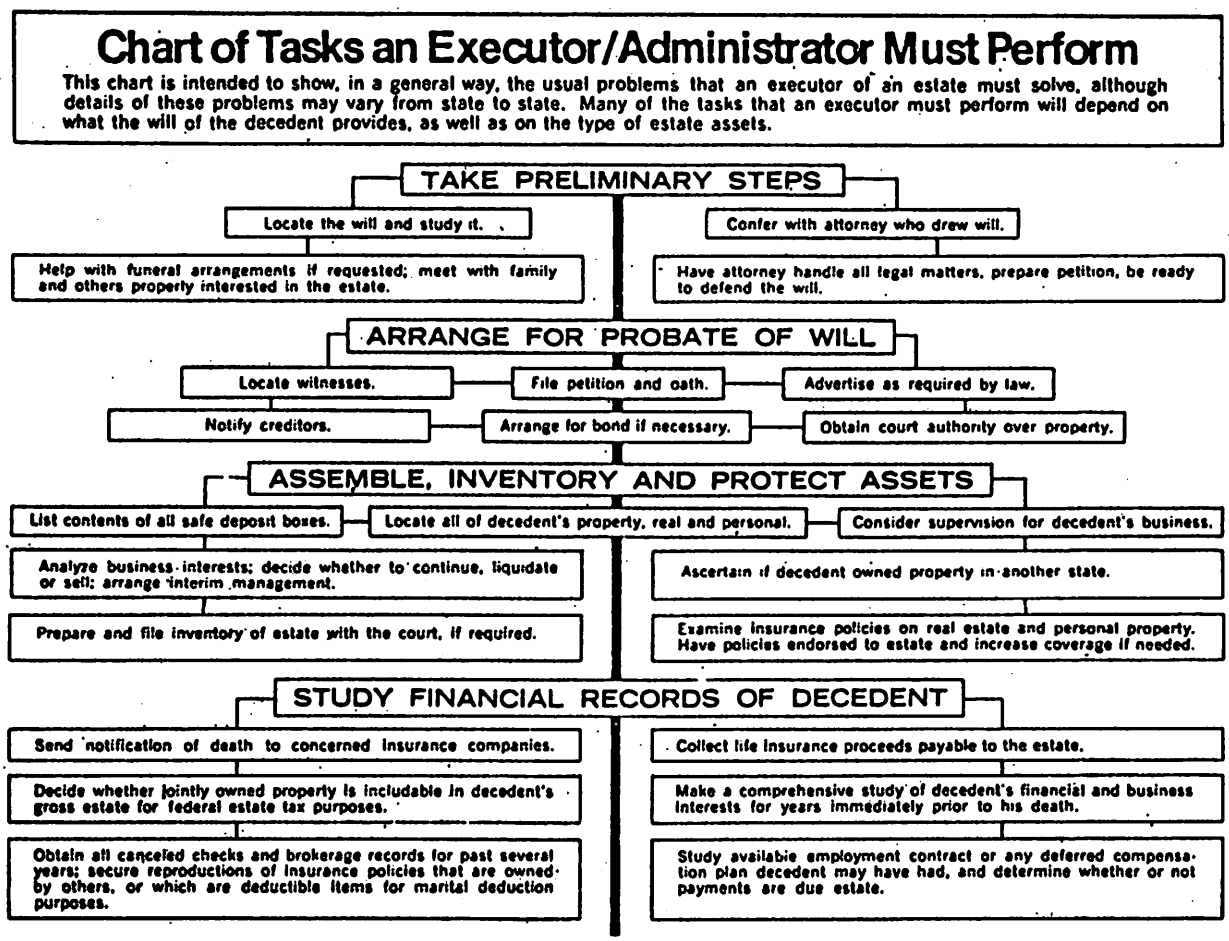

Chart of Tasks an Executor/Administrator Must Perform
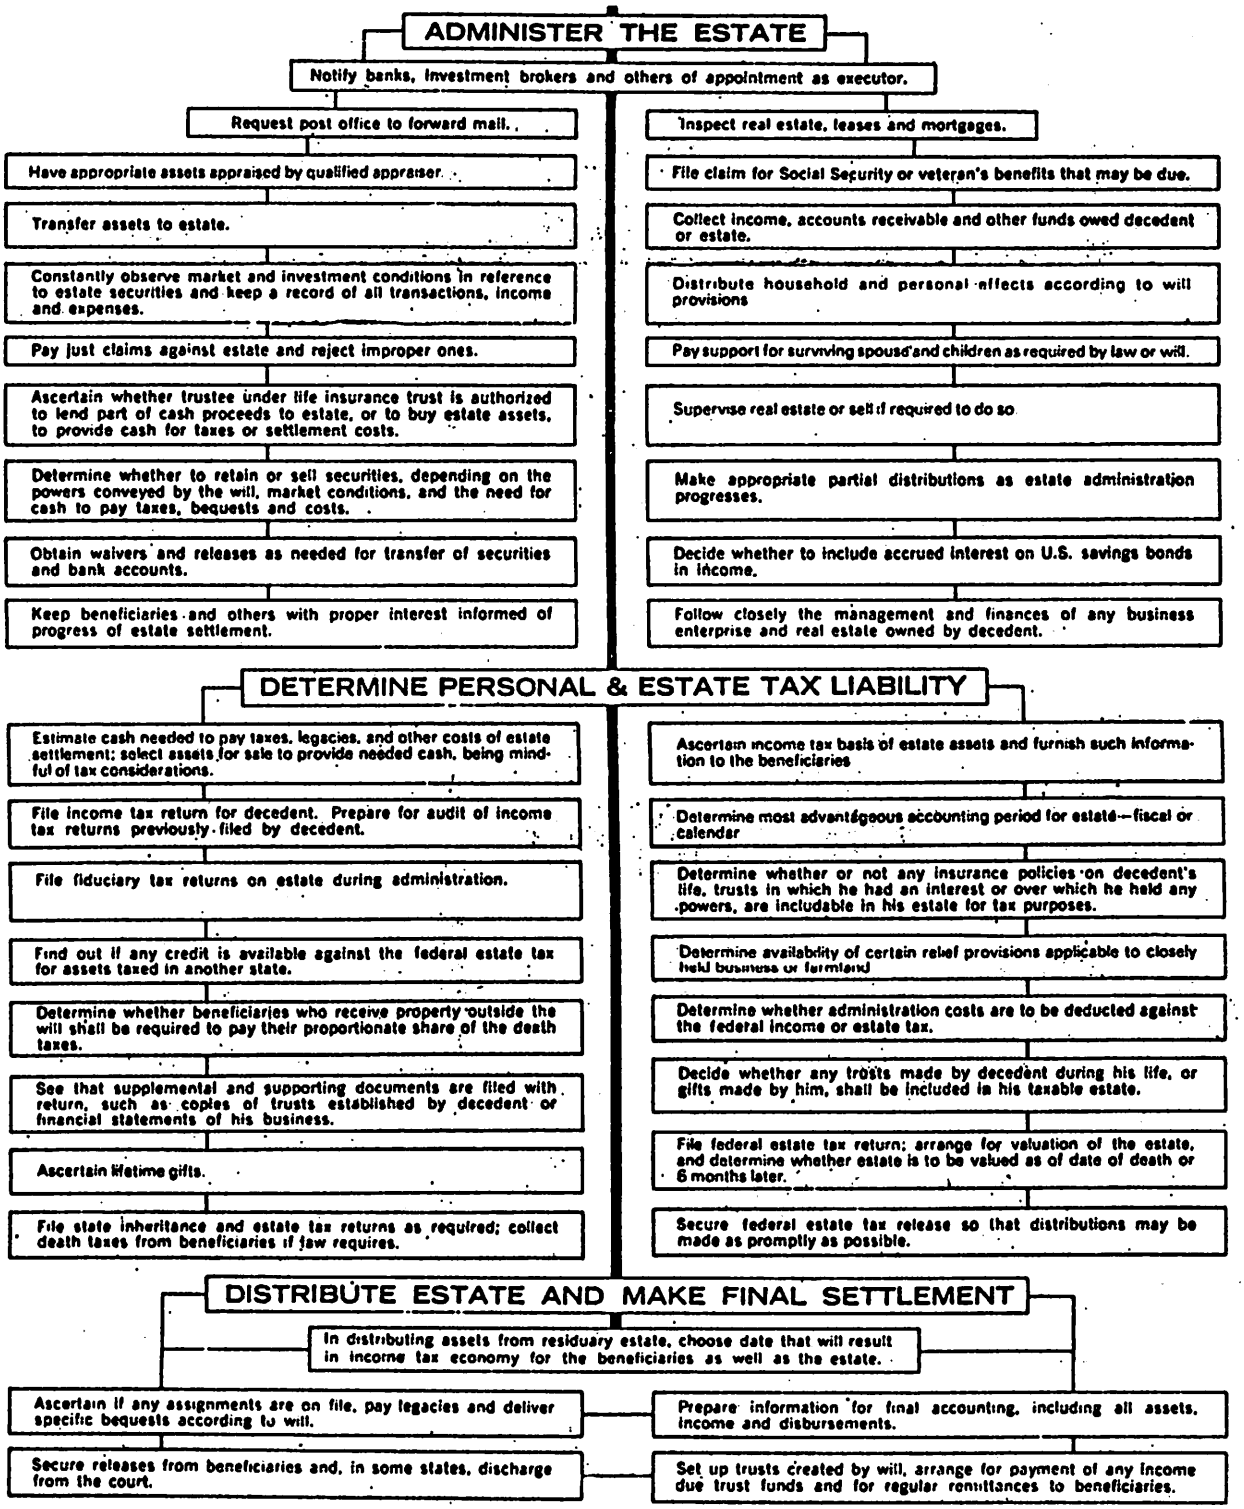
This chart is intended to show, in a general way, the usual problems that an executor of an estate must solve, although details of these problems may vary from state to state. Many of the tasks that an executor must perform will depend on what the will of the decedent provides, as well as on the type of estate assets.
TAKE PRELIMINARY STEPS
Locate the will and study it.
Confer with attorney who drew will.
Help with funeral arrangements if requested; meet with family and others properly interested in the estate.
Have attorney handle all legal matters, prepare petition, be ready to defend the will.
ARRANGE FOR PROBATE OF WILL
Locate witnesses.
File petition and oath.
Advertise as required by law.
Notify creditors.
Arrange for bond if necessary.
Obtain court authority over property.
ASSEMBLE, INVENTORY AND PROTECT ASSETS
List contents of all safe deposit boxes.
Locate all of decedent's property, real and personal.
Consider supervision for decedent's business.
Analyze business interests; decide whether to continue, liquidate or sell; arrange interim management.
Ascertain if decedent owned property in another state.
Prepare and file inventory of estate with the court, if required.
Examine insurance policies on real estate and personal property. Have policies endorsed to estate and increase coverage if needed.
STUDY FINANCIAL RECORDS OF DECEDENT
Send notification of death to concerned insurance companies.
Collect life insurance proceeds payable to the estate.
Decide whether jointly owned property is includable in decedent's gross estate for federal estate tax purposes.
Make a comprehensive study of decedent's financial and business interests for years immediately prior to his death.
Obtain all canceled checks and brokerage records for past several years; secure reproductions of insurance policies that are owned by others, or which are deductible items for marital deduction purposes.
Study available employment contract or any deferred compensation plan decedent may have had, and determine whether or not payments are due estate.



ADMINISTER THE ESTATE
Notify banks, investment brokers and others of appointment as executor.
Request post office to forward mail.
Have appropriate assets appraised by qualified appraiser.
Transfer assets to estate.
Constantly observe market and investment conditions in reference to estate securities and keep a record of all transactions, income and expenses.
Pay just claims against estate and reject improper ones.
Ascertain whether trustee under life insurance trust is authorized to lend part of cash proceeds to estate, or to buy estate assets, to provide cash for taxes or settlement costs.
Determine whether to retain or sell securities, depending on the powers conveyed by the will, market conditions, and the need for cash to pay taxes, bequests and costs.
Obtain waivers and releases as needed for transfer of securities and bank accounts.
Keep beneficiaries and others with proper interest informed of progress of estate settlement.
Inspect real estate, leases and mortgages.
File claim for Social Security or veteran's benefits that may be due.
Collect income, accounts receivable and other funds owed decedent or estate.
Distribute household and personal effects according to will provisions
Pay support for surviving spouse and children as required by law or will.
Supervise real estate or sell if required to do so
Make appropriate partial distributions as estate administration progresses.
Decide whether to include accrued interest on U.S. savings bonds in income.
Follow closely the management and finances of any business enterprise and real estate owned by decedent.
DETERMINE PERSONAL & ESTATE TAX LIABILITY
Estimate cash needed to pay taxes, legacies, and other costs of estate settlement; select assets for sale to provide needed cash, being mindful of tax considerations.
File income tax return for decedent. Prepare for audit of income tax returns previously filed by decedent.
File fiduciary tax returns on estate during administration.
Find out if any credit is available against the federal estate tax for assets taxed in another state.
Determine whether beneficiaries who receive property outside the will shall be required to pay their proportionate share of the death taxes.
See that supplemental and supporting documents are filed with return, such as copies of trusts established by decedent or financial statements of his business.
Ascertain lifetime gifts.
File state inheritance and estate tax returns as required; collect death taxes from beneficiaries if law requires.
Ascertain income tax basis of estate assets and furnish such information to the beneficiaries
Determine most advantageous accounting period for estate—fiscal or calendar
Determine whether or not any insurance policies on decedent's life, trusts in which he had an interest or over which he held any powers, are includable in his estate for tax purposes.
Determine availability of certain relief provisions applicable to closely held business or farmland
Determine whether administration costs are to be deducted against the federal income or estate tax.
Decide whether any trusts made by decedent during his life, or gifts made by him, shall be included in his taxable estate.
File federal estate tax return; arrange for valuation of the estate, and determine whether estate is to be valued as of date of death or 6 months later.
Secure federal estate tax release so that distributions may be made as promptly as possible.
DISTRIBUTE ESTATE AND MAKE FINAL SETTLEMENT
In distributing assets from residuary estate, choose date that will result in income tax economy for the beneficiaries as well as the estate.
Ascertain if any assignments are on file, pay legacies and deliver specific bequests according to will.
Secure releases from beneficiaries and, in some states, discharge from the court.
Prepare information for final accounting, including all assets, income and disbursements.
Set up trusts created by will, arrange for payment of any income due trust funds and for regular remittances to beneficiaries.

There is no limit as to the number of queries which a member may submit. BOOK REVIEWS are published when a copy of the book has been received by the Society. After review these books are donated to the Genealogical and Historical Room, Washington Memorial Library, Macon, GA., whose holdings are one of the largest in the southeast. Members are encourage to submit ARTICLES FOR PUBLICATION in the QUARTERLY, and extra long articles may be serialized. The QUARTERLY is not copyrighted and anyone is welcome to make proper use of the contents; however, the use of articles quoted from other published sources is prohibited without permission from the copyright holder. Appropriate credit will be appreciated. The QUARTERLY is not sold by subscription. Current and back issues may be purchased from the Society when available. MEETINGS: The Society holds regular monthly meetings with planned programs. These meetings are currently held at the Flint Electric Building, 1600 Elberta Road, Warner Robins, Georgia at 7pm on the third Thursday of each month. In addition to the program, time permitting, a question and answer session is usually conducted for the benefit of members who have a problem with their research, or who has found a better way for accomplishing their work. Visitors and guest are always welcome to attend regular meetings of the Society. Our current membership covers many states and we invite you to join our Society. GRAVES FOUND IN JONES COUNTY, GA

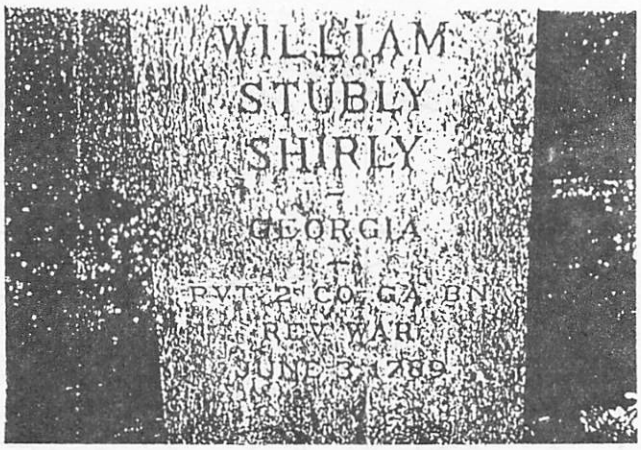
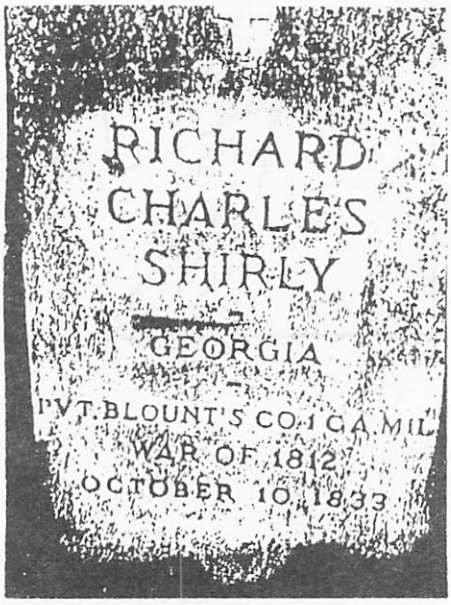
Contributed by: Virginia C. LLOYD, [redacted]
She writes, "We found these graves over a year ago and can not find them documentated...man who owns property knows nothing...in deep woods...other box graves here." She also submitted the copy machine photos used herein.

Research by your Editor, revealed a Shirley Family Folder at the Washington Memorial Library, in Macon. Data in this folder directs one to proceed to Old Clinton Road, from Macon via U.S. 129. Take Old Clinton Road to Graham Road, hence to Charles Roberts' residence. Dirt road to left, just before Roberts place takes you 100 yards and then stop. Look to right to walled enclosure. This is Brooks-Shirly Cemetery. Graves marked are: Richard Charles Shirly, William Stubley Shirly, and John Hanna Brooks. Attached in folder is a business card D. B. Williams, International Reality, 2116 Riverside Drive, Macon, GA with (undated) note on reverse which states "Just sold land of Brooks-Shirly Cemetery!"



Further research reveals, William Stubly Shirley b. 1757 and wife Elizabeth Maxwell were living in St. Paul Parish (now Richland County) in 1772 and on 1 Oct.1798 he was on 4th Dist, Burke County, Tax Digest. The Revolutionary Records of GA, Vol. II, show the complaint of William Stubly Shirley before the Executive Council, stating that he was being plundered of a considerable part of his property by persons, now inhabitants of South Carolina, and which property is forcibly detained from him. The Executive Council earnestly recommended to the Justices and other persons in civil authority of South Carolina to assist the said William Stubly Shirley in the recovery of whatever property he make appear to be his and detained as above. He died in 1826 (according to Maddox) at age 77 years which would make his birth in 1749? William Stubly Shirley was son of Richard Shirley from Augusta County, VA to Georgia. The Shirley family owned land joining John Brooks, Jr., and wife Jane May, while living in Warren County, GA.



Richard Charles Shirley, b. 1781 GA d. 1828 was son of William Stubly Shirley and married Sarah Brooks, daughter of John Hanna Brooks. Their daughter Elizabeth Shirley 1807-1866 married John Gaylord Brown in 1825 and they moved to Alabama. Another daughter Keziah, b. 1805 married 1h. William Clemence and had one dau. Elizabeth. On 2 Aug.1826, Keziah married 2h. George Compton King b. 1798 and in 1849 moved to Alabama. Daughter Phoeby Shirley, m. Uriah Porter and lived in Russell County, AL. Daughter Sidie Shirley, m. William Barnett Hawes and moved to Alabama. Thomas Shirley, b. c1816 m. Meck White and lived in York, AL. Nathaniel Shirley, b. 1819 moved to MS. Jane May Shirley, died young. After his first wife died, Richard Charles Shirley, married Phoebe Proctor, sister of Uriah Proctor, and has issue of Edward Shirley who died 1835 and Aaron Shirley who died in service in C.S.A. CGGS Quarterly, Vol 7, No. 1, page 35 contains a legal abstract from the 25 Sep.1828 Georgia Messenger of Macon, GA which reads, "All personal property will be sold at the house of Richard Shearly, deceased, of Jones County, GA. Thomas S. Humphries, Administrator." We don't know why the date "October 10, 1833" appears on his stone, but the Shirley Family Folder says he died in 1833.

The Book, "Brooks and Related Families" by Ida Brooks Kellam, 1950, contains considerable information on the Brooks & Shirley Families. It states John Hanna Brooks was born c1748, Chatham County, NC (by tradition) and died in Jones County, GA in 1811. He left no will, but sold land there in 1811 and his estate was inventoried late that year. His wife Sarah in 1820 deeded the land he drew in Early County to her son Charles H. Brooks who was born 1772 SC, was also in War of 1812, moved to Alabama about 1829 and by 1850 was in Bastrop County, TX. Son Philip H. Brooks, also served in War of 1812 and married Nancy Shirley in 1805 in Warren County, Ga and was in 1830 census of Jones County, GA. Son Samuel Brooks, also a soldier of War of 1812 died in Baldwin County in 1823. Son William Brooks, was also a soldier of War of 1812. Son John Brooks IV, married Alice Waldrop in Jones County in 1816 and it was their son John H. Brooks who married Matilda Townsend in 1840 and they resided in the old Brooks home on the John Hanna Brooks plantation. The old plantation later passed to their son Andrew Jackson Brooks. Another son Isham Brooks born 1786 VA, d. 1852 Talbot County, GA and m. 1811 to Lezina Jordan, widow of Levi Jordan, in Putnam County, GA. Sarah Brooks, only known daughter of John Hanna Brooks, was born 5 Dec.1787 and d. 5 Dec.1824 and married 5 Jun.1804 to Richard Shirley.

John Hanna Brooks was son of John Brooks, Jr and wife Jane May. His grandparents were John Brooks and Susan Brooks of Chatham County, NC. One record states John Brooks Jr., moved from VA to NC in 1736 and on to GA prior to Rev. War. He had six sons: Isaac who remained in NC; Allen a RS; Joab a RS who d. 1804 in Warren Co, GA; John H. a RS; James a RS; and Micajah at RS who lived Henry County, GA 1827 and d. 1862 in Jackson County at age 101. John Brooks, Jr and wife Jane May settled on land on Briar Creek which was Wilkes County when formed in 1784 and later Warren County. The Shirley family owned land joining John Brooks, Jr., and Jane May in Warren County. John Brooks, Jr. died prior to 1793. Another record states it appears evident but lacking proof that Isaac and a Baalam Brooks were sons of John Brooks, Jr., and wife Jane May. Jane May was daughter of John May, Sr who sold land to John May, Jr., in Orange Co, NC in 1760 and 1766. He later moved to Pitt County, NC before comming to GA where he also owned land on Briar Creek which later descended to his son John May Jr. It is also interesting to note that CGGS Quarterly, Vol 6, No. 1, page 24 contains the name John Brooks as Juror for the April, 1809 and April 1810 Terms in Jones County, GA.

PATTERSON FAMILY BIBLE

Contributed by: [redacted]
Copied from a 1932 copy of The Georgia Post, Knoxville, GA.

"50 YEARS AND MORE" In Crawford County, by C.B.H. Moncrief. The Editor of this paper has a very old family Bible that has passed through at least three generations of the Patterson family from North Carolina, who emigrated to Jones County, Georgia, possibly about 1834. The Bible was printed in the year of 1832, at Boston, by the American Bible Society.

The family records in the Bible are as follows:

Lucy, Negro woman was born September 2, 1835. (continued)

Big Amandy, 2 January 1837, colored.

Willie Patterson and Herndon was married January 9, 1800 in the state of North Carolina, Orange County.

Joseph B. Patterson, the son of Willie Patterson and Elizabeth L. Lowe, the daughter of William Lowe, was married January 23, 1834, in Jones County, Georgia.

Willie Patterson was born in October 15th, 1775.

Ann Herndon, the wife of Willie Patterson, was born June 10, 1779.

Joseph B. Patterson, the son of Willie Patterson, was born 29th of May 1813.

Elizabeth L. Patterson, daughter of William Lowe, was born 8th of April, 1816. All of Jones County, Georgia.

Persumingly, Joseph Patterson settled a long while before the War between the States on what is now known as the Patterson place. Also Webb A.J. Spillers' place. Also might be known as the old Hunter place, also Hunter place.

The late Mrs. R. K. Webb was an heir of the Patterson's. Many heirs of the Lowe family reside here now. This bible is in fair condition, however, some of the leaves have been lost out during its many years of faithful service, and many of its sweet passages have been read. (We are sure this book has been in Crawford County 85 years or longer.

RECENT ACQUISITIONS AT WASHINGTON MEMORIAL LIBRARY

POLICY: The Central Georgia Genealogical Society, Inc., during 1987 discontinued the maintenance of a Society Library. The holdings in our Library were small and duplicated publications held in the Genealogical and Historical Room, Washington Memorial Library, Macon, GA which has one of the largest collections in the southeast. The Macon Library is centrally located within the 27 county jurisdiction of our society and can far better serve our membership. All publications previously held were presented to Willard L. ROCKER, Head Librarian at the Genealogical and Historical Room. All publication received by our society as gifts, donations, by exchange programs or for book reviews will be presented to the same library. Since 1987, it has been our policy to support the Macon Library particularly in the acquisition of microfilms of early county records within our jurisdictional area. We hope to expand our support as future conditions permit. As a service to our membership, this column list the acquisition of all records since the previous Quarterly. Inquiries with SASE (business size) may be addressed to the library at 1180 Washington Ave., Macon, GA 31201.

William R. HENRY, Editor

CENTRAL GEORGIA GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, INC.
POST OFFICE BOX 2024
WARNER ROBINS, GEORGIA 31099-2024

Non-Profit
Tax Exempt
Org. GA

ORGANIZATION: The CENTRAL GEORGIA GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, Inc. was organized in October 1978 by James T. Martin of Warner Robins, Georgia. In February 1981 the Society was incorporated as a non-profit organization under the law of the State of Georgia. The U.S. Internal Revenue Service has determined that the society is a tax-exemption organization under Section 501(c), U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1954. The Society is governed by a Board of Directors consisting of the elected and appointed officers and six elected Directors.

AREA: The Society's geographical area of primary interest consists of twenty-seven contiguous counties located in central Georgia. They are: BALDWIN, BIBB, BLECKLEY, CRAWFORD, CRISP, DODGE, DOOLY, HOUSTON, JOHNSON, JONES, LAMAR, LAURENS, MACON, MONROE, MONTGOMERY, PEACH, PIKE, PULASKI, TAYLOR, TELFAIR, TREUTLEN, TWIGGS, UPSON, WASHINGTON, WHEELER, WILCOX and WILKINSON.

PURPOSE: The purposes for which the corporation is organized are:

To collect, preserve and disseminate knowledge and information with reference to genealogical and related historical, biographical and heraldic data;

To inculate and promote interest in research in these fields;

To stimulate and provide instruction in the use of efficient methods and the adherence to principles of accuracy and thoroughness in research;

To champion ethical standards and to discourage and oppose incompetent and disreputable practices or researchers;

To foster careful documentation and otherwise promote scholarly writing;

To issue publications, and

To promote the collection and the preservation of local records which are of genealogical or historical value.

MEMBERSHIP: Membership in the Society is open to any person interested in promoting the objectives stated above. Annual dues for 1992 are: $20.00 for individual membership; $25.00 for family membership (husband and wife, or two related persons in same household).

TRAINING: At least twice each year the Society conducts classes for beginner genealogists. These classes are free for members in good standing.

WORKSHOP: The Society plans to hold an all day workshop once each year, complete with exhibits, for members and the public. The registration fee will be set to cover the Society's cost and may vary from year to year, depending upon prices charged for food, meeting facilities, speaker fees, etc.

PROJECTS: The Society undertakes special projects for preservation of genealogical and historical information, such as: microfilming old newspapers, abstracting and publishing county court records, federal census records, cemetery records, etc.

PUBLICATIONS: The Society publishes a monthly NEWSLETTER and a QUARTERLY. The QUARTERLY is published four times per year as number 1 thru 4 and is mailed to all members in good standing. The annual volume number represents the years in existence. Many other societies, who are members, receive our QUARTERLY. QUERIES, from members only, are published in the QUARTERLY free of charge. There is no limit as to the number of queries which a member may submit. BOOK REVIEWS are published when a copy of the book has been received by the Society. After review these books are donated to the Genealogical and Historical Room, Washington Memorial Library, Macon, GA., whose holdings are one of the largest in the southeast. Members are encourage to submit ARTICLES FOR PUBLICATION in the QUARTERLY, and extra long articles may be serialized. The QUARTERLY is not copyrighted and anyone is welcome to make proper use of the contents; however, the use of articles quoted from other published sources is prohibited without permission from the copyright holder. Appropriate credit will be appreciated. The QUARTERLY is not sold by subscription. Current and back issues may be purchased from the Society when available. The Society welcomes the opportunity to publish FAMILY PEDIGREE CHARTS for members. Mimimum coverage of four generations is required. Our computer designed charts provided for as much information on the fifth generation as the second, third and fourth - most charts provide much less. Give us as much complete information as possible on available forms and separate paper.

MEETINGS: The Society holds regular monthly meetings with planned programs. These meetings are currently held at the Flint Electric Building, 1600 Elberta Road, Warner Robins, Georgia at 7pm on the third Thursday of each month. In addition to the program, time permitting, a question and answer session is usually conducted for the benefit of members who have a problem with their research, or who has found a better way for accomplishing their work. Visitors and guest are always welcome to attend regular meetings of the Society. Our current membership covers many states and we invite you to join our Society. For a membership application write to the Corresponding Secretary at address shown in the heading above or call (912) 953-3114.

OLD MILITARY NEWSPAPERS

Air Force newspapers become "old news" to the average reader once the publication has been reviewed. But "old news" carries within it a small piece of history. That history is available to anyone. The State Historical Society of Wisconsin is the self-proclaimed central depository for newspapers of the Air Force and other services.

What began as a small bookcase in the Wisconsin governor's office in 1854 now consists of collections numbering more than 2.8 million printed and microform items on history, genealogy and related microform items on history, genealogy and related topics north of the Rio Grande.

The library provides reference and information services in person, over the telephone and by mail. Anyone interested in contacting the historical society via mail should address packates to: James P. Danky, Newspapers & Periodicals, [redacted]. [From Vol.35 No. 1, AFTERBURNER, January 1993]

[Editors' note: Belle Boyd (1844 - 11 Jun.1900), the noted Confederate spy and stage actress is buried in Spring Grove Cemetery in Wisconsin Dells, WI]

1825 TAX DIGEST INDEX
McINTOSH COUNTY, GEORGIA

Contributed by: William R. HENRY, [redacted]

The port of Darien in McIntosh County lies at the mouth of the Altamaha River. During this era of time plantation owners in Houston and nearby counties shipped their products by flatboats down the Ocmulgee and Altamaha rivers to Darien. The trip took three to four weeks, using long poles and muscle power, to make the round trip. This was a few years before the use of steam power. Migration along the rivers was a source of pioneers to central Georgia.

Information such as dates of birth, marriage and death, education, church membership, military service and occupation is given for each one. Many photographs of family members are included which will be greatly appreciated by their relatives. GRAVES FOUND IN JONES COUNTY, GA
ADDITIONAL DATA TO PREVIOUS QUARTERLY

Editor Note: William Stubly SHIRLY, RS whose grave was found in Jones County, can be found in the records of Anson County, NC. He received a land grant there on 24 Apr. 1762 and appears on the 1763 Tax List of Anson. Anson Deed Book 5, page 205 & 210 shows that William Stoutly SHIRLEY, of St. Paul's Parish, Province of Georgia made deeds on 12 & 13 Jan. 1766 to Micajah Pickett, Jr for land on the waters of Craven County, SC; a tract on northeast side of Peedee River to west side of Cartledge's Creek and 125 acres on north bank of Cartledge Creek to Dry Fork, northeast of Peedee. This confirms that he was older and came to Georgia earlier than previously reported.

THE DAVIES DESCENDANTS OF DOOLY COUNTY

Contributed by: Doris M. DAVIES, [redacted]

Edward DAVIES (1745 - Nov. 9, 1786) of Charleston, South Carolina and Savannah, Georgia and his wife Rebecca Lloyd DAVIES were the progenitors of many families in Georgia. Their son, Judge William DAVIES (Jul. 8, 1779 - May 30, 1829) married on Mar. 6, 1797 Mary Ann BAILLIE, daughter of Robert BAILLIE and his wife Anne MacKintosh BAILLIE. Anne MacKintosh BAILLIE was the daughter of John Mohr MacKINTOSH and his wife Margery FRAZER. In 1735 the MacKINTOSH'S came over on the "Prince of Wales" and settled in what is now McIntosh County where Anne was born in 1737.

To the union of William DAVIES and Mary Ann BAILLIE were born four children: John Bulloch, Anne Johnson, Robert Berrien and Mary Euphemia. After the death of Mary Ann BAILLIE on Nov. 3, 1813, Judge DAVIES continued to practice his chosen career in the law. As a member of the Legislature he went to Milledgeville where he met and married on Feb. 20, 1815 Sarah GRANTLAND (Aug. 26, 1792 - Jun. 12, 1885), daughter of Gideon and Sarah Branford GRANTLAND of Virginia. This union produced seven children: Sarah Grantland, Rebecca Stebbins, Mary Ann, William Gideon, Fleming Grantland, Theodosius Barton, and MacPherson Berrien.

As the people moved from the costal area inland so did the DAVIE'S children. Some remained in Milledgeville where they had settled after Judge DAVIES' death and some in Savannah, but some went into the south part of Georgia. Judge DAVIES' children married the following individuals:

1. John Bulloch DAVIES born on Jan. 23, 1798 was a Methodist Minister and married on Jan. 18, 1821 Sarah ORME (Nov. 2, 1801 - Dec. 26, 1854) of Milledgeville, GA., daughter of John ORME and Sarah McAllister ORME. He died Nov. 24, 1849. Both are buried in Memory Hill Cemetery in Milledgeville, Georgia.

2. Anne Johnson DAVIES was born at Sunbury on Dec. 28, 1801 and died on Apr. 16, 1847 in Milledgeville, GA. She first married William Augustus McINTOSH of Darien, her cousin, who died about a year after their marriage. She was only 16 at the time. On Oct. 15, 1820 she married Dr. Charles J. PAINE, son of Orris Snow PAINE and Margaret Hay PAINE of Richmond, VA. Both are buried in Memory Hill Cemetery in Milledgeville, Georgia.

3. Robert Berrien DAVIES (1804 - Feb. 9, 1864) was the third child of William and Mary Ann DAVIES. He married Louisa Jane KEY (1818 -), daughter of Henry KEY and Sara Elizabeth PAULETTE. At the time of his death he was the Clerk of the Superior Court of Dooly County, Georgia.

4. Mary Euphemia DAVIES (Sept. 29, 1807 - Feb. 6, 1891) fourth child of William and Mary Ann DAVIES married on Feb. 27, 1826 Iverson Lewis HARRIS (Jan.

7, 1805 - Mar. 11, 1876), son of Augustin HARRIS and Ann BYNE of Hawkinsville, GA. Both are buried in Memory Hill Cemetery in Milledgeville, Georgia.

5. Sarah Grantland DAVIES (Mar. 2, 1816 - Nov. 12, 1878) married on Mar. 2, 1835 William Bowe TINSLEY (Jul. 12, 1807 - Nov. 17, 1864). They are buried in Memory Hill Cemetery in Milledgeville, Georgia.

6. Rebecca Stebbins DAVIES (Jun. 21, 1817 Savannah, GA - Apr. 1, 1904 Griffin, GA) married on Jan. 4, 1837 William Spencer ROCKWELL (Oct. 12, 1809 Albany, NY - Jan. 3, 1870 Abingdon, MD). Both are buried in Memory Hill Cemetery in Milledgeville, Georgia.

7. Mary Ann DAVIES (1818 - Oct. 15, 1844) is also buried in Memory Hill Cemetery in Milledgeville, Georgia.

8. William Gideon DAVIES (Jun. 2, 1821 Savannah, GA - Dec. 22, 1850 Tupelo Co., MS), married first Mary A. KILGORE, daughter of Dr. Benjamin KILGORE. He then married Sarah GILLESPIE of Murfreesboro, TN. He is buried in Memory Hill Cemetery in Milledgeville, Georgia.

9. Fleming Grantland DAVIES volunteered in the Macon Guards, 1st Regiment GA. Troops under Colonel Henry R. JACKSON in the War of Mexico 1846-1847 and died in service unmarried.

10. Theodosius Barton DAVIES (Jun. 15, 1825 Savannah, GA - Jun. 28, 1859 Thomasville, GA) married Martha Adams REMINGTON (Jul. 29, 1831 Thomasville, GA - May 5, 1898 Thomasville, GA), daughter of Edward REMINGTON and Mary Anne Arnold Smith REMINGTON on May 3, 1848. They are both buried in the Old City Cemetery in Thomasville, Georgia.

11. MacPherson Berrin DAVIES (1829 - Aug. 23, 1829). He is buried in Memory Hill Cemetery in Milledgeville, Georgia.

Robert Berrien DAVIES, second son of Judge William DAVIES and his wife Mary Ann Baillie DAVIES was educated at what is known now as the University of Georgia. In 1826 in Savannah he was admitted to the bar. By 1830 he is shown in the Dooly County census. To the union of Louisa Jane KEY and Robert Berrien DAVIES were born eleven children:

1. William Henry DAVIES (May 3, 1834 - Sep. 24, 1900) who married Julia Frances STANTON, daughter of William and Nancy Garland STANTON of Hancock County, Georgia and Virginia. Children were Augustus B., Amanda, Edward B., and Martha.

2. Charles Harris DAVIES (May 18, 1836 - Nov. 13, 1903 Gainesville, FL) who married first Mary Ann SANDERS on Apr. 14, 1859 and then Mary Jane GRAHAN on Oct. 19, 1879. Children born were Alfred T., Charley H., Lula Louisa, Edwin, Fannie Bell, and Robert.

3. Robert Ross DAVIES (1838 -) married Martha NOBLES on Feb. 12, 1862 in Dooly County, Georgia.

4. Walter Paulette DAVIES (1839 -) married Mary P. BROWN, daughter of Loam BROWN, Jr., on Dec. 16, 1858. Children born were Waltie, Jr., Louiza F., and Susan F.

5. Mary Ann Elizabeth DAVIES (Nov. 11, 1840 - May 22, 1925) married William F. BENNETT on Jun. 14, 1858. Children were Mary Lela, William F., Charles Iverson, James Gordon, Lucy Audrey, Tussie Edlyne, S.G., Lewis H. and John A.

11. Sarah Louise DAVIES (1855 -) married Daniel Hannibel KIRK. Children were: Ivan Lee, Oscar Beacham, Alma Louise, and Mildred.

Robert Berrien DAVIES carried on the family tradition of being involved in a law career by serving as the Clerk of the Court of Dooly County. His son, William Henry also served as the Clerk of the Court after he returned from serving in the Confederate cause. After he retired from the court, he went to live with his daughter, Amanda Davies BUFF in Pulaski County, GA until his death.

The descendants of Robert Berrien DAVIES have scattered to various Georgia counties. Although Walter Paulette DAVIES descendants still live in Dooly County the majority have left this area. Virgil Melancton DAVIES, great-great grandson of Robert Berrin DAVIES and grandson of William Henry DAVIES came to Thomas County in the 1920's as a Pharmacist in Boston, Georgia. Virgil Melancton DAVIES (Jul. 24, 1899 - Apr. 26, 1988) known as "Doc" was unable to practice his chosen profession due to a freak accident causing a loss of vision. This quite simple man, who never let his blindness interfere with living was the father-in-law of this writer. Without encouragement from him and the help of other descendants this article would not have been possible. Other information regarding the descendants of Edward DAVIES is available from the writer and she may be contacted for assistance at the address shown above.

RECENT ACQUISITIONS AT WASHINGTON MEMORIAL LIBRARY

POLICY: The Central Georgia Genealogical Society, Inc., during 1987 discontinued the maintenance of a Society Library. The holdings in our Library were small and duplicated publications held in the Genealogical and Historical Room, Washington Memorial Library, Macon, GA which has one of the largest collections in the southeast. The Macon Library is centrally located within the 27 county jurisdiction of our society and can far better serve our membership. All publications previously held were presented to Willard L. ROCKER, Head Librarian at the Genealogical and Historical Room. All publication received by our society as gifts, donations, by exchange programs or for book reviews will be presented to the same library. Since 1987, it has been our policy to support the Macon Library particularly in the acquisition of microfilms of early county records within our jurisdictional area. We hope to expand our support as future conditions permit. As a service to our membership, this column list the acquisition of all records since the previous Quarterly. Inquiries with SASE (business size) may be addressed to the library at 1180 Washington Ave., Macon, GA 31201.

William R. HENRY, Editor

CEMETERIES, LAURENS CO., GA

Are there any lists of persons buried in "potters fields" cemeteries? For instance, a widowed lady without means or family may have been buried in such a place in early days and early 1900's, if she had no one to take care of her at her death. When an elusive ancestor can't be found through censuses and other sources, where would he/she have been buried? And by whom? Does Laurens Co. (Dublin, GA) or Bibb Co. (Macon, GA) have a list of cemeteries? If not, can one locate a grave through a cemetery assoc. or one of the leading funeral directors of those areas? Who might have suggestions for this type of search?

I have a female ancestor, born 1847, who lived in Wilkinson and Laurens Counties, GA. She died in Laurens County sometime between 1910 and 1920. Any suggestions, addresses, or phone numbers of anyone that can assist in this search for her burial place will be greatly appreciated.

Also, am interested in whereabouts of old family Bible. Daniel A. McLEOD I. was m. to Jane R. EVANS, and they had 11 children. After his death, the family moved to Dooly Co., GA, and finally settled in the Cedar Creek Community in Wilcox Co., GA, where many descendants still reside.

A second letter came to us from Mrs. Pat ROBINSON, Librarian, Joe Edwards Library at Zebulon, GA. She states a Mr. Shi Gray HOLMES told her that he remembered his grandmother telling him how well Ann Leak could play the piano with her toes. He called Mrs. Dorothy Rivers YODER, [redacted] and she sent a letter (31 Jan.1993) to Mrs. ROBINSON stating she had seen two pictures of ANNE E. LEAK THOMSON. In one picture, she had a fork between her toes, and there appears to be a biscuit on a plate. In the other picture she seems to be crocheting, and a crocheted piece is spread out on a table. A man with a beard and a boy, about 10 or 12 appears with her. On the back of the picture is written: "So you perceive it's really true, when hands are lacking, toes will do." Anne E. Leak Thomson, Born without arms, Dec. 23, 1839 Georgia.

Mrs. YODER added that her grandfather, Dr. Walter Addison RIVERS of Glenwood, GA called her "Cousin Tootie". He said she was a smart woman, could do almost everything with her toes - sew, crochet, eat, etc. He said she could do everything a person with arms could do.

Mrs. YODER also stated that her grandfather calling her "Cousin Tootie" seemed to indicate she was related to the descendants of Garlington Leak, her ggg-grandfather who was born in Laurens District, SC.

We find Garlington LEAK and his father James in the 1830 census of Jasper County, GA. There is another male in household of Garlington of his age 20-30. In Pike County we find that Wesley LEAK married 17 Jan.1832 to Eleanor P. SHEHEE and on 4 Oct.1834, James LEAK left will naming sons Garlington, Wesley, George W., and others. Garlington and his brother Wesley then appear in 1840 and 1850 census of Pike and in 1860 they both appear in Spaulding County. Ann E. age 18 is listed with Wesley & Elinor in 1860 and so were Charles, Susan and Jackson (10 years younger) then when we found them in 1870 census of Suwannee Co., FL. In the 1850 census of Pike, Ann Eliza had been listed as Elisha a male.

We also find that the Rev. Samuel LEAK, a Methodist Minister, (who was of similiar age and appears to be a brother to James LEAK) also left will in Pike in 1836. He named sons John M., Jeremiah, and Tanner plus others. Garlington, apparently the oldest of the two families also served with Samuel's widow Jane as Executor. Wesley may have been called John B. in 1870 census if his full name, in Methodist tradition, was John Wesley B. LEAK. He named one son Wesley and another John B.

PULASKI COUNTY GEORGIA COURT OF ORDINARY LETTERS OF GUARDIANSHIP 1856-1909

Contributed by Victor R. MYRICK, [redacted]

Until 1856 records of appointment of guardians were kept in the Ordinary Court Minutes. From then until 1909 they were kept in a work of printed forms with blanks to be filled in. These records are of great value to genealogists. If a child is called an orphan it means that the father is dead. The mother might still be alive. In rare cases a father was appointed guardian of his children but this was an unusual event because the father was by law the guardian of his children. Most of the guardians were men, either a close relative or friend. This was done because of the custom against women managing businesses or looking after money and property. In some cases a man was appointed as guardian of his wife. This happened when she was still a minor and had inherited property.

In these records I have given first the name of the guardian, then the date of appointment and then the name and identifying information of the orphan.

COLLEGE LIBRARY POLICIES ON COMMUNITY BORROWING

Contributed by: Editor.
Source: Based on a recent article by Susan PARKER, in The Macon Telegraph.

Due to book losses, College Library policies on community borrowing are changing. More and more are dropping free borrowing. One of the latest is Mercer University Library in Macon, Georgia. Their new policy requires community borrowers to pay a $50 fee annually. Mercer alumni now must pay $25 for borrowing privileges. The new policy is "not a fund-raising thing," but rather an attempt to limit book checkouts to serious researchers and others who are more likely to return materials. Irresponsible borrowers has cause calculated losses of some $2,500 in past 3 years and many of these books are no longer in print or cost more that the original. Visitors, are still welcome to use the Library to look up and copy information.

Mercer's Library is the local depository for government documents. The new policy originally withdrew checkouts privileges on these document but had to be revised because community access to government documents is protected by law. Mercer will now issue a Government Documents User Card to any citizen who wishes to check out those documents (limited to three documents at a time for a three-week period).

Mercer's Library also has a Genealogical Section with a large depository of Georgia Baptist Associations, Baptist Church Records, Baptist Ministers, etc. Visitor to this area can also research these records, many of which are on microfilm. Microfilm readers, were coin operated, the last time I was there and this section was only open one day per week. So check ahead if you plan to visit the Genealogical Section.

Other colleges, such as Macon College and Middle Georgia College in Cochran (both public colleges) offer checkouts privileges for free - borrowers need only to fill out a form and present proper identification, such as drivers license or birth certificate. Macon College limits community card holders to three books at a time but Middle Georgia limits the number of books only if on same subject (limit four).

Wesleyan College in Macon, Fort Valley State College, Agnes Scott in Decatur and Oglethorpe University in Atlanta allow no community checkouts of materials. Emory University in Atlanta charge $100 per year for community borrowing. Emory's holding of Methodist Church records may be of interest to Genealogists. Georgia State College in Milledgeville and Georgia State College in Atlanta charge $50 annually for community borrowing. Georgia State, however, will only grant borrowing cards to researchers after evaluating them on a case-by-case basis.

The University of Georgia in Athens has several borrower policies. They will grant residents of Clarke County a borrowers card for a one-time $10 fee (as long as the card is renewed on time, every three months). The UGA library has an agreement with many counties around the state to extend same policy to people outside of Clarke, but the counties must agree to help UGA keep track of the books. Bibb, Jones, Baldwin, Crawford, Twiggs and Wilkinson counties, who are members of the Middle Georgia Regional Library system are not participating with UGA. Houston County residents, however, are eligible for a UGA borrowers card. Of particular interest to Genealogists is the UGA depository of old Georgia Newspapers.

Also check your local public library to see if they participate in the inter-library loan system. Those that do can obtain just about anything in print from other public and academic libraries across the United States. You must have a public library card. There is no charge for the service, but the borrower must pay postage fees, usually under $2 at Library rate. Allow about a week.

NEWSPAPERS IN THE LIBRARY

Contributed: by Editor

My good friend and long time correspondent, Adria D. HUMPHRIES, now age 93, recently sent me a very interesting article by Larry L. MURDOCK, a Professor of Entomology at Purdue University. The article give his experiences, as an amateur genealogist, in newspaper research.

But first a little about Adria. When the newly organized County Library became a Department of the Cleveland (Ohio) Public Library in 1925 she became Field Supervisor, to organize libraries in towns and schools outside the city. Adria served 44 years with the Cleveland Public Library and retired from the Fine Arts Department at age 70. But then she entered volunteer service for The Council on Human Relations, chairing an active Book Packet Committee, books were purchased by schools and children's centers throughout the United States. After organizing a library at The Center for Human Services, and cataloging two private libraries, she became addicted to genealogy and is a member of First Families of Ohio, sponsored by the Ohio Genealogical Society. Adria, Professor Murdock and I have only two things in common. We are natives of Greene County, Indiana and genealogical buffs.

Professor Murdock's article was titled "Newspapers Can Yield Genealogical Gems; One Amateur Genealogist's Experience" and was printed in "Newspapers in the Library: New Approaches to Management and Reference Work", by Lois N. Upham, Editor, The Haworth Press, New York and London.

The Professor first talked to his mother about her paternal grandfather. She was a girl of 15 when he died, and he explained how girls of that age don't always remember the facts that genealogists need. Mother however found a typewritten copy of her grandfathers obituary, published in 1928 in a small town newspaper that no longer exists. In this obituary he found the place and date he was born, the name of his father and mother, his civil war service, when he moved from one place to another, the name of his sister, the date of marriage and full name of her grandmother and when and where she died, where grandfather lived after grandmother died, the names of their five children and the location of those who survived him, the name of a child they reared and her married name, his church membership, facts leading to his death, and his position of esteem within the community he lived.

Where newspapers no longer exist, he emphasized the need to search for obituaries in bureau drawers, dusty scrapbooks, old bibles, unopened books of elder relatives, folded in funeral cards and in cherished funeral-visitor books. Don't overlook visits to uncles and aunts and ask about old newspaper clipping. Be specific for this may jar a forgotten memory where a vague request may fall upon deaf ears. When estates are being settled look carefully in all back drawers and in crumbling boxes before discarding their contents - you may be throwing away the last copy in existence.

He stresses that other sources of obituaries are in hundreds, even thousands, of newspaper collections, scattered across the country in county courthouses and in city, state and national libraries, in the backrooms of little weeklies and dailies, and in the files and attics of unnumbered redbrick small-town Carnegie libraries. These collection are being discovered, catalogued, microfilmed and made more accessible by various efforts.

He describes how he learned an ancestor had settled in a certain county when the state was formed. He joined the Historical Society of that county and for the $5.00 annual membership received many benefits. The Society had received a box containing old newspapers and one of these contained an obituary on the ancestor giving similar details to the typwritten one previously mentioned. From this he found his gravestone and immediately proved that the death date on stone was wrong by one year. Later he found that the stone had been placed by a grandson, who obviously relied on a faulty source for his dates.

From family bibles, tombstones, and other family records, try to confirm dates and places with obituaries. You must first determine if a newspaper existed for the time period and where copies or microfilms are located. Once finding their location, begin with issues a few days or weeks (in case of a weekly) before the death date and continue for days or weeks after. News didn't always travel as rapidly then as it does today. Local genealogical and/or historical societies may help or provided the name of a local genealogist who will do the job for a reasonable fee. Newspapers also contain other treasurers of family information. In addition to obituaries look for other notices of death, funeral announcements, family reunions, community news columns, editorials, legal advertisements, church memorial and lodge tribute of respect.

He mentions that current newspapers offer virgin waters for genealogical fishing. That in 1980 he read about a booklet listing current American newspapers that carried genealogical columns. For a small sum he obtained the booklet compiled by Joyce Owen Metzger of Spokane, Washington. She listed more than 120 American and Canadian newspapers carrying genealogical columns, with names and addresses of the individual responsible for preparing the column. He tells that numerous letters exchanged with a helpful County Clerk in Halifax County, VA has proved nothing to confirm the father of his third-great-grandfather who had emigrated from Halifax County, VA to Owen County, IN in 1821. Mrs. Metzger's book listed, The News and Record of South Boston, VA in the heart of Halifax County as carrying a genealogical column called "Halifacts". He sent the editor of the column a query, which eventually brought forth a whole string of genealogical facts and figures. His fourth-great-grandfather was indeed Hawkins Landrum, who was bonded to celebrate the rites of Holy Matrimony as a Methodist Minister in 1784, and whose will referred to his wife as "Sukey". He learned the location of his farm, the Landrum Cemetery, and other evidence such as he came to Halifax from Buckingham County, VA. Other queries placed in newspaper columns resulted in names of all the children of another fourth-great-grandfather and acquaintance with a third cousin who shared her treasury of facts.

Professor Murdock states that names, birth dates, death dates, and marriage dates are the bare bones of genealogy. That the raw materials for enlivening the bones of ancestors can be found in old newspapers. If you want to try an experiment in enlivening, you begin simply by finding a newspaper published in his or her locality in the appropriate period, and read several issues of it, as if you were a contemporary. He recommends you go through the issues from cover to cover, assuming citizenship of that time and period; read unhurriedly, looking over the advertisements and notices. After you understand the structure of the paper, skim and scan additional issues. He tells how he found other items of great interest to an ancestor such as the price of crops, local stable fires, how the brother of a third-great-grandfather paraded his military company at Carlisle, Indiana on the Fourth of July, 1834 and a 1831 notice that a letter was waiting for him at the Vincennes Post Office. He also tells how he found in the Brazil Times, the marriage of the sister of his great-grandfather to one George Smith, when erroneous family tradition had it that she had married a Hunter. A record did not exist in the county they were married.

He also states one shouldn't restrict your newspaper reading to local dailies and weeklies. That he has found direct relevance to his own family history in the New York Times. Many large metropolitan newspapers, like the New York Times are available on microfilm in many university and college libraries (even the Warner Robins, Georgia Library has these). He tells how the issue of October 1886 revealed the price of passage from Glasgow, Scotland to New York City, on the State of Georgia, the ship that carried his great-grandfather to America for the first time. He also mentions that the New York Times carried many detailed accounts of battles during the civil war and how he found an account of the 5,000 Union soldiers captured by the Confederates at Munfordville, Kentucky and that his great-grandfather was among those captured.

Professor Murdock states that if you want more detailed ideas and guidance about finding and using newspapers for genealogical research, he suggest you go to the nearest library and obtain a copy of The Source: A Guidebook of American Genealogy, edited by Arlene Eakle and Johni Cerny. Published by Ancestry Publishing Company, Salt Lake City, Utah, in 1984. Chapter 12, on newspapers, by Loretto Dennis Szucs, of this 786 page book, presents twenty pages on use of newspapers in genealogical research.

CLAYTON

....Thomas CLAYTON was in VA by June, 1635. Richard CLAYTON arrived on PAULE, leaving London July 1635. Both settled in Lawnes Creek Parish, which encompassed James City and Surry Co., and formed part of the northern border of Isle of Wight Co. By 1684 Thomas was Burgess representing James City Co. Thomas was also shown in 1699 as attorney in estate settlement in York Co. Undated estate records from Henrico Co., ca 1700, mentions accounts owed to Thomas CLAYTON, dec., "In the hands of John CLAYTON, Adm." John CLAYTON was adm. of Thomas's estate, and possibly his son. (Have been unable to get copy of will or estate settlement.) On May 31, 1707, John CLAYTON and Drury STITH wit. a property deed in Henrico Co. Many deeds of Henrico Co. between 1691 and 1704 mention a "place called Claytons," "Clayton's Field" and "Clayton's Patent." These are probably the same property, and described in one deed as being on the N/S of James River near Balys Run.

....John CLAYTON (son of Thomas?) served as an assemblyman from James City Co. in House of Burgesses from 1720 until 1734. His burial is recorded in the Register of Bruton's Parish, James City Co. on 23 Sep 1736. This John is not to be confused with the very famous John CLAYTON, who was Attorney General, or his son, John, who was an eminent Botanist. The famous John also lived in James City Co., but did not arrive in VA until 1705; therefore, cannot be the 1699 attorney of record. He d. 18 Nov 1737, so cannot be the John buried 23 Sep 1736. Our John CLAYTON wrote his will in 1756 (probated 4 Jan 1759), naming 7 children, 2 sons-in-law, and 4 grandchildren. Children: William, m. Priscilla BRIGGS; Elizabeth, m. ? MILLER; Mary, m. T ? VERLINES; John, m. Mary HOLLIMAN; Susannah, m. Francis WILLIAMSON; Rebecca, m. Thomas MILLER; George, b. in James City Co. before 1718, wife unknown, moved to Brunswick Co., VA. George CLAYTON wrote his Will on 19 Oct 1775, as of Bristol Parish, Dinwiddie Co., VA, but it was probated in Brunswick Co. 21 Jun 1776, wherein he named in Will only one son.

No other children are named in this Will; however, on 23 Nov 1784, Charles CLAYTON entered a bond between himself, John SHORT, John CLAYTON, William ABERNATHY, and Brittain CLAYTON renouncing all claims to the estate of John CLAYTON, dec., of Isle of Wight Co. or George CLAYTON, dec., of Brunswick Co. William ABERNATHY m. George's dau. Elizabeth, and it is probable that John SHORT was also a son-in-law of George CLAYTON. Son Brittain CLAYTON m. 1st, Sally ?, having 6 children: Elizabeth; Brittain (both b. prior 1774); John, George, Betsey, and Nancy were b. between 1774 and 1787. Brittain m. 2nd on 13 Nov 1787 to Lucy BAILEY, and had children: Warren, Jasper, Charles, Polly, Caty, and Rebecca. (Have copy of Will) Brittain d. before Mar 1799 in Stokes Co., NC.

....I am descended from dau., Elizabeth, who m. 1787, Surry Co. to Maj. LOGGINS. Major and Elizabeth moved into Pendleton Dist., SC by 1800, and were in Jefferson Co., AL by 1819 when their dau., Louisa, m. Vincent Gardner SELF. I have list of children of Major and Elizabeth. Does anyone have proof of the father of John CLAYTON, who d. 1759 in VA? The earliest part of the information developed was done by William CLAYTON of Tyler, TX. I developed the information from George CLAYTON on down. Will exchange information and any help will be appreciated.

GEORGIA NOTARY JOURNAL NEWS

Contributed by: James T. MARTIN,
The following articles were taken from The Notary Journal, Vol.10, No.1, published by the GEORGIA COUNCIL OF NOTARIES PUBLIC, State of Georgia, P.O. Box 550108, Atlanta, Georgia 30355

>>>>>>>>><<<<<<<<<

"The seal of the Georgia Notary Public is recognized in more than 28 foreign countries, including most of the United States' major trading partners." What this means is that a document moving in international commercial channels can now move much quicker because the "chain of certification" has been greatly reduced. Some of our members doing research in foreign countries may have a need to send a notarized document aboard, or have one sent to them in the United States.

>>>>>>>>><<<<<<<<<

"A 'signature' is a person's name written as he or she calls himself or herself. Whatever mark one may choose to employ as representative of himself or herself is sufficient. .... The traditional mark usually is referred to as a cross, but it often looks more like an 'X'. .... When a person signs by mark, his or her name is added and words 'his mark' or 'her mark' written over or near the X. .... Georgia allows a witness to sign by mark as well. State law says in regard to wills that a 'witness may attest by his mark, provided he can swear to the same."

RECENT ACQUISITIONS AT WASHINGTON MEMORIAL LIBRARY

POLICY: The Central Georgia Genealogical Society, Inc., during 1987 discontinued the maintenance of a Society Library. The holdings in our Library were small and duplicated publications held in the Genealogical and Historical Room, Washington Memorial Library, Macon, GA which has one of the largest collections in the southeast. The Macon Library is centrally located within the 27 counties of primary interest of our society and can far better serve our membership. All publications previously held were presented to Willard L. ROCKER, Head Librarian at the Genealogical and Historical Room. All publication received by our society as gifts, donations, by exchange programs or for book reviews will be presented to the same library. Since 1987, it has been our policy to support the Macon Library particularly in the acquisition of microfilms of early county records within our jurisdictional area. We hope to expand our support as future conditions permit. As a service to our membership, this column list the acquisition of all records since the previous Quarterly. Inquiries with SASE (business size) may be addressed to the library at 1180 Washington Ave., Macon, GA 31201.

William R. HENRY, Editor

MACON LIBRARY EXPANDS GENEALOGICAL DEPARTMENT

By the time you read this, you should find the Genealogical Department, Washington Memorial Library, Macon, GA has reopened with a new paint job, new carpet, and an expansion of floor space from 6,000 to 8,000 square feet. The expansion, was financed by the county, at a cost of about $109.000. It was accomplished by knocking down the two walls between the lecture room and the genealogical room, expanding into the lecture room and adding authomatic doors. The current entrance to the lecture room will serve as the main entrance to the genealogical department.

With little public notice, the genealogical department was closed in early April and was scheduled to reopen on 13 June. Many researchers, particularly those from out of town who were unaware of the closing, have been upset to find the genealogical department closed. Being one of the better libraries of this type in the Southeast, researchers come from all over the country to use its services (see note on statistics under "Recent Acquisitions" item). We advised our members through our Newsletter, however Mr. Charles Schmidt, Director has stated there was no way that everyone could have been informed.

Mr. Willard L. Rocker is Head Librarian of a staff of four in the Genealogical Room and Mr. Peer Ravnan is the Archivist in the Archives Room. The Genealogical Department is open Monday's from 9am to 9pm and Tuesday through Saturday from 9am to 6pm. The department is closed on Sunday and occasional holidays. The Library is located at 1180 Washington Ave., Macon, GA. The telephone number is (912) 744-0820 and the FAX number is (912) 742-3161.

FRANKLIN HOLLOMAN CEMETERY

This cemetery is on the same land as the Old Sardis in deep woods at the old homeplace of FRANKLIN HOLLOMAN. Land (about 5,000 acres) now owned by the Netherlands. Part of fence still standing and you can see ruins of old homeplace. Thirteen graves - only three marked.

3. JOE LEE GORDON, July 14, 1871, Dec. 28, 1925 (JOE LEE was 1st. husband of CARRIE HOLLOMAN GORDON BLEDSOE)

The other 10 graves are unmarked but seven (7) recorded in HOLLOMAN Bible are as follows:

NOTE: Three unmarked graves but thought to be parents of CAROLINE LONG HOLLOMAN - THOMAS J. & THERSA ANN ELIZABETH SLEDGE LONG. Also one may be MARY FRANCES HOLLOMAN, dau. of FRANKLIN and his first wife FRANCES MORRIS. She married JAMES LAWTON HARRIS in 1870. MARY FRANCES was born Feb. 13, 1853 and d. 1887. Have been unable to trace after her marriage in 1870. For a year they lived on FRANKLIN HOLLOMAN land. Bible records her death in 1887 (Mrs. J.C. CORLEY told of her marriage, but did not know where she lived when she died - also did not know of any children she and JAMES L. HARRIS might have had before 1887). Marriage on record in Jones County - some evidence they may have gone to Louisiana or Texas with other HARRIS family members - but no proof except her death recorded in family Bible and three or four census records when she lived in Jones County until 1870 (last record). See following map for location of above cemeteries.

PULASKI COUNTY GEORGIA COURT OF ORDINARY
LETTERS OF GUARDIANSHIP 1856-1909

Contributed by Victor R. MYRICK, [redacted]

Until 1856 records of appointment of guardians were kept in the Ordinary Court Minutes. From then until 1909 they were kept in a work of printed forms with blanks to be filled in. These records are of great value to genealogists. If a child is called an orphan it means that the father is dead. The mother might still be alive. In rare cases a father was appointed guardian of his children but this was an unusual event because the father was by law the guardian of his children. Most of the guardians were men, either a close relative or friend. This was done because of the custom against women managing businesses or looking after money and property. In some cases a man was appointed as guardian of his wife. This happened when she was still a minor and had inherited property.

In these records I have given first the name of the guardian, then the date of appointment and then the name and identifying information of the orphan.

HANS DEVAULD FUNDERBURK

Contributed by: C. Gene FUNDERBURK, [redacted], [redacted]
[redacted] [Editor Note: His submission has been condensed where possible.]

It is believed that Hans Devauld Funderburk was born about 1724 in Germany and was the son of John Michael Von der Burg. At the age of 14 Devauld and his parents, brothers and sisters left their home in Leipzig, Germany for America. They boarded the ship "Golden Beaver" at Hamburg in 1738. The ship was wrecked off the Carolina coast and all the family was lost except Devauld. He was rescued by a ship carrying German immigrants and brought to Charleston, South Carolina. He was sold as an indentured servant to a planter to pay passage. After a few years he skipped bond.

In 1755 Devauld married Catherine Laney, the daughter of Titus and Hannah Laney from the present location of Lancaster County, SC. Devauld and Catherine lived in a German settlement on the Haw River in North Carolina for a few years then they moved back to the Upper Lynches River Region in Lancaster County, SC and settled permanently along Polecat Creek.

Devauld was a founding member of the Spring Hill Baptist Church. He died about 1818 and he and Catherine were both buried at Spring Hill Baptist Church. Catherine Laney was born on 10 Dec. 1740 and died about 1805. Their children were:

Mary Ann, 1 Jun.1756 - 5 Jun.1856, who married Conrad Plyer.
John, 15 Nov.1758 - 12 Jan.1852, who m. I. Mary Larriman, 2. Wife unknown.
David, c1760 - c1824, who married Catherine Rape.
Jacob, c1762 - c1839, who married Barbara Delaney.
Elizabeth, c1765 - ?, who married (William Wood ?).
Abel, c1767 - c1849, who married B. (Plyer ?).
Joseph, c1769 - ?, who married Mollie Sturkey.
Catherine, c1771 - ?, who married (Daniel Hunter ?).
Henry, 18 Feb.1773 - 1 Aug.1843, who married "Polly" Rape.
Sarah "Sally", c1775 - c1817, who married Jesse Hayes.
William Laney, c1777 - c1852.
George Washington, c1782 - c1876, who married Sally Scott.

John Funderburk, son of Hans Devauld and Catherine (Laney) Funderburk, served in the American Revolutionary War as a private in the South Carolina Militia under the commands of Col. Kershaw, Gen. Marion, Col. Marshell, Gen. Sumter, and Col. Hopkins. He married Mary Larriman about 1783 and she died about 1792. He married his second wife (unknown) about 1800. John and his family moved from Lancaster County, SC to Chesterfield County to Edgefield County and back to Lancaster County to Chesterfield County then to Jones County, Georgia.

The 1816 Jones County, GA Tax Record showed John living in GMD 304 or Capt. Permenter's District in southwest Jones County. This was near Fort Benjamin Hawkins and Griswoldville. He appeared in the 1820 census of Jones County and the 1821 Land Lottery Book in Jones County. COMIC EPITAPHS

Enosburg Falls, VT:

In Memory of Ann Hopewell
Here lies the body of our Anna
Done to death by a banana
It wasn't the fruit that laid her low,
But the skin of the thing that made her go.

Death Valley, CA:

Here lies the body of poor Aunt Charlotte
Born a virgin, died a hariot;
For sixteen years she kept her virginity,
A damn'd long time for this vicinity.

A Texas undertaker carved the following on the bottom of all his monuments:

Ashes to ashes, dust to dust.
We bury only the upper crust.

FEDERAL LAND RECORDS

The Eastern States Office, Bureau of Land Management, Department of Interior, 7450 Boston Boulevard, Springfield, VA 22153 (Telephone 704-461-1400) now has the tract books and copies of patents for the states of Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Louisiana, Michigan, Minnesota, Mississippi, Missouri, Ohio and Wisconsin.

Similiar land records for Alaska, Arizona, California, Colorado, Idaho, Kansas, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Mexico, North Dakota, Oklahoma, Oregon, South Dakota, Utah, Washington and Wyoming remain in the General Branch (NNFG), Civil Archives Division, National Archives and Records Administration, Washington, DC 20409. Other states were never part of the Federal public domain.

Most land entry papers for years 1800-1908 are arranged by State, land office, kind of entry, and certificate number. There are name indexes for Alabama, Alaska, Arizona, Florida, Louisiana, Nevada and Utah. Military bounty land warrants are arranged by act of Congress, certificate number, and for warrants under the acts of 1847-55, by number of acres. There are indexes for the Revolutionary War and most of the War of 1812 warrants. To identify warrants under the acts of 1847-55, you must use NATF Form 80 to request a search to obtain the warrant application number, then furnish this information to the General Branch for a search to obtain copy of the warrant.

RECENT ACQUISITIONS AT WASHINGTON MEMORIAL LIBRARY

POLICY: The Central Georgia Genealogical Society, Inc., during 1987 discontinued the maintenance of a Society Library. The holdings in our Library were small and duplicated publications held in the Genealogical and Historical Room, Washington Memorial Library, Macon, GA which has one of the largest collections in the southeast. The Macon Library is centrally located within the 27 counties of primary interest of our society and can far better serve our membership. All publications previously held were presented to Willard L. ROCKER, Head Librarian at the Genealogical and Historical Room. All publication received by our society as gifts, donations, by exchange programs or for book reviews will be presented to the same library. Since 1987, it has been our policy to support the Macon Library particularly in the acquisition of microfilms of early county records within our jurisdictional area. We hope to expand our support as future conditions permit. As a service to our membership, this column list the acquisition of all records since the previous Quarterly. Inquiries with SASE (business size) may be addressed to the library at 1180 Washington Ave., Macon, GA 31201.

William R. HENRY, Editor

NOTE: The genealogical collection of this library contains 19,975 books, 7570 microfilms, 6400 microfiche, 259 Maps and 60 subscriptions. During past nine months they came from 37 states, with Florida, Alabama, Texas, South Carolina, Virginia, Tennessee and California representing states (in order) with the highest number.

COURT HOUSE HORROR

Contributed by: Diane Mullis HERRIN, [redacted]

The first thing I learned in tracing my dad's ancestry was that my grandfather was a Mullis and my grandmother's maiden name was Mullis. Since he was from Cadwell, GA and she from Eastman, GA, I spent hours in the Dublin and Eastman Courthouses. My search eventually led me to the Hawkinsville, GA Courthouse. My first stop was the back room of the Superior Court vault.

Alone in the room, I recorded land records. The quiet was interrupted by a loud siren and slamming doors. Briefly, I thought, this must be a major fire for this small town. Eventually I learned that siren announced a lunch break for the entire town.

Completing my research I realized that the exit was dark. Being claustrophobic, I panicked but eventually felt my way out. Fortunately, the secretary had forgotten to turn the combination lock on the second steel door.

The moral of this story is: Don't enter a courthouse vault without making sure that someone knows that you're there!!

Copywork and search charges are: $15 for photostat copies of Patents, State Grants, Swamp and Railroad Conveyences, etc. (The $15 reflects cost of search, certification and copy fees); Pages of Tract Books and Survey Plats are $1.75 per page; Field Notes are $1.75 for first page and $1.00 for each additional page from same volume; Case File Records are $.13 per page and Research is $16 per hour (There is no charge for up to 15 minutes).

If you expect to make numerous requests for research and photostat copies, they suggest you open an advance deposit account. Regulations require payment before requested material is sent out, and an advance deposti will greatly expedite your order.

Include your complete name, telephone number and address with each request. Remember to specify the complete legal description, including subdivision (such as NE 1/4 NE 1/4), section, township (North or South), range (East or West), survey meridian, state, county and other pertinent information.

Eastern States Office maintains the records of some 7.5 million land transactions. More than 5 million patent documents are housed in 9,386 bound volumes. Field notes are filed in 1,745 bound volumes and there are 1,582 original tract books. A Small Business contract was awarded in 1989 to start optical scanning and disk storage. In the future customers will be able to retrieve these images, both on-site and remote dialing.

CGGS DONATION TO WASHINGTON MEMORIAL LIBRARY

On 15 July 1993, The Central Georgia Genealogical Society, held it's monthly meeting at the newly renovated Genealogical Room of the Washington Memorial Library in Macon. The meeting was attended by 56 members and guest. During the meeting our President, Helen Armstrong, on behalf of the Society presented a check for $500 to Willard L. Rocker, Head Librarian. Following the meeting, Mr. Rocker gave the members a very informative talk on the holdings of the library and a guided tour of the shelving changes.

THE LONG JOURNEY, A FAMILY HISTORY 1687-1991, Embracing an account of the arrivals, movements, and ultimate dispersal of the southern branches and descendants of eleven allied families; ADAMS-BALLENGER-CLEVELAND-DUKE-HAIR=HARBIN-LEWIS-LYLES-O'KELLEY-TRAIL-WARD. Compiled by Thomas L. Hair, [redacted]. Copyright 1992, Hardcover, 8½ x 11 inches, 236 pages, full name index, no price given. Copy donated to CGGS.

Several of the allied family members and allied surnames are listed in Elbert, Franklin, Habersham and Oglethorpe Counties of Georgia. Each of the eleven allied families are covered in a separate sub-section of section 3. along with a total of 716 additional surnames. The history is well documentated with complete copies of wills, other court documents and church records. It also contain a number of priceless early letters between family members.

PULASKI COUNTY GEORGIA COURT OF ORDINARY
LETTERS OF GUARDIANSHIP 1856-1909

Contributed by Victor R. MYRICK,

Until 1856 records of appointment of guardians were kept in the Ordinary Court Minutes. From then until 1909 they were kept in a work of printed forms with blanks to be filled in. These records are of great value to genealogists. If a child is called an orphan it means that the father is dead. The mother might still be alive. In rare cases a father was appointed guardian of his children but this was an unusual event because the father was by law the guardian of his children. Most of the guardians were men, either a close relative or friend. This was done because of the custom against women managing businesses or looking after money and property. In some cases a man was appointed as guardian of his wife. This happened when she was still a minor and had inherited property.

In these records I have given first the name of the guardian, then the date of appointment and then the name and identifying information of the orphan.

JOHN W. JONES, BIBLE

Contributed by: Marion Jones HENRY, [redacted]

The Family Bible of John W. JONES is in possession of Mr. & Mrs. Hansel Lloyd RYLE of [redacted]. Both Mr. & Mrs. RYLE were previously married to descendants of John W. JONES.

John W. JONES, was born 28 April 1828 in Duplin County, NC and came with his parents Edward & Mary JONES to Houston County, GA in 1834. His parents bought the Ezekiel H. BRYAN plantation on Big Indian Creek where it joins with Mossey Creek. A year later his father died. John W. and his brother Harrell Blackmore JONES, helped their mother work and clear the land until she sold the property in 1843. His mother then moved the family to the old Simon BATEMAN place, east of Perry, near Houston Lake. His mother, Mary, was frequently mentioned in minutes of the Sand Ridge Baptist Church before it was moved and merged with Smyrna Baptist Church to became Houston Factory Baptist Church. The obituary of John W. JONES states he joined the Smyrna Baptist Church in 1854 but there are no minutes for that church.

John W. and Susan Jane TULL, daughter of Arthur TULL and Nancy TUCKER, were married 6 January 1848 in Houston County and settled near the dam on Mosey Creek (now called Houston Lake). At the time of the 1850 census, his next door neighbors on one side were Daniel W. PARR (who built the dam) and Ivey BROOKS (who married the widow Mary HADDOCK, whose late husband William, had a mill on the east side of the dam). Next door on the other side were Mathew HUDSON and John W. HARRINGTON.

John W. was a farmer but there are no records of any deeds. He was shown on the Tax Digest of Houston County for 1858 but with no taxable property. In fact son Jesse, 9 years old was shown eligible for Poor School Fund Relief at the John W. JOINER, School. In late 1858 or 1859, John W. moved his wife and five children from Houston County to Madison County, Florida. He appears there in 1860 census, page 17, as a Planter with $1,000 in personal property.

In Houston County, Georgia Deed Book L, pages 446-448, dated 2 Mar.1862, we find that John W. JONES received $822.36 final settlement from his mothers estate. Following this is a statement where John W. JONES of Madison County, Florida appointed Bennett BARFIELD his Attorney to secure final settlement from E.W. GADDY, Executor.

An extensive three day search of Madison County Courthouse records shows that John W. JONES owned no property and made no mortgages. A listing in the Sheriff's Office indicated that he was Madison County Sheriff from 1865 through 1867 but there were many gaps before and after these dates. The Sheriff's Office stated the Florida Sheriff Association was trying to obtain a listing of all Sheriffs in each county and this was the most likely dates they could find. The Clerk of the Court revealed that following the Civil War their officials were appointed by the US Government until a free election could be held. Free elections begin in the fall of 1865 under close scrutiny of Federal authorities at the county level. Many of the leading confederate veterans were elected to congressional seats at State and Federal levels but in December 1865, Congress shut the door in their faces, and in some cases military officers were detailed to fill positions such as Acting Governor. We finally found where ten (10) Sheriff deeds were issued for unpaid taxes by John W. JONES between 14 Jan.1867 and 3 Jul.1868. The Clerk of the Court then stated that he was probably the first elected Sheriff after the appointment period.

The old County Jail when he was Sheriff, was serving as the County Library when we were doing the research in 1983. Following the Battle of Olustee, some 50 miles east of Madison, both blue and gray wounded were brought to Madison by train and the DAVIS Mansion was used as a Hospital. A number from both sides who died during hospitalization are buried in Oak Ridge Cemetery. We later found that Marion Frances TULL, a brother to Susan Jane TULL (John W's. wife) was buried there in 1880. He served in the Confederate Service from Houston County, GA.

We do not find John W. in the 1870 census for Florida or Georgia. But about this time he moved his family back to Houston County and settled temporarily on the old HUDSON place. Two of his daughter are mentioned in the minutes of the Houston Factory Baptist Church as having joined (1871) with letters from Madison County, Florida. By 1880, John W. and Susan were living near Spaulding in Macon County and were members of the Beulah Baptist Church. About 1882 the family, with exception of daughter Martha A. wife of Reubin Dan AVERY, moved to Navarro County, Texas. Susan did not adjust to Texas and became quite homesick, so about 1888, she and John W. moved back to Spaulding in Macon County. Susan died 11 May 1893 and her obituary was recorded in a Montezuma newspaper and in a resolution of the Beluah Baptist Church.

Harrell Blackmore JONES, the brother of John W. died 24 May 1897 in Dooly County, Georgia just below Henderson. His obituary in the Houston Home Journal states John W. was at his bed side when he died. In 1900, John W. JONES traveled back to Navarro County, Texas to visit some of his children and suddenly died there. We believe he is buried in an unmarked grave in Grange Hall Cemetery, Navarro County next to his daughter Liza J. JONES, wife of Robert R. DILWORTH.

I descend from Jesse Arthur JONES, the oldest son of John W. and Susan Jane. He married and remained in Madison County, Florida and eventually moved to Marion County, Florida where he died in 1910. We had no difficulty with my descent from him but John W. was another problem. GG-Aunt Ruth FARNBACH, at age 91, living in McIntosh, Florida in 1983, told us she had seen her grandfather once as a little girl and he was from Texas. This information kept leading us to look for a John W. JONES in Texas after 1870. Aunt Ruth, at her age, didn't like to talk about deceased relatives, but could talk your head off about her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. So she had to be approached in a non-direct manner. One question, "Did you and Uncle Emett have a honeymoon?" She replied, "Yes, when we married in 1911, we got on the train and went to Montezuma, Georgia to visit Aunt Martha and Uncle Dan AVERY". Uncle Emett FARNBACH was the Railroad Station Master in McIntosh at the time. Then she mention another Uncle Durham Wimberly JONES. This thread of information took us through the census and courthouse records of Macon, Houston, Dooly, Crisp and Irwin Counties. Finally we found that R.D. AVERY and wife Martha E. JONES were charter members in 1910 of the Cedar Valley Baptist Church, located about 7 miles southeast of Montezuma. While walking through the church cemetery, a week before Christmas in 1983, my husband found tombstones of Martha E. Jones AVERY, Durham Wimberly JONES, their spouses and other descendants. While writing down names and dates, a man in a pickup truck waved from the road and turned into the cemetery. He got out, came over, and asked if he needed to know more about those people. There conversation led to the fact that he and his wife were both relatives by marriage to descendants of Durham Wimberly JONES. My husband was shocked and dumbfounded when the man stated he had the family bible of John W. JONES. My husband, within 30 minutes, was setting in the home of Mr. & Mrs. Hansel Lloyd RYLE, of Montezuma looking at the Bible. They were kind enough to loan my husband (a complete stranger at this point) the crumbled and tattered bible (printed in 1885) to copy the birth, marriage, and death pages, along with obituaries and church resolutions. This was an act of providence, a great find and our thanks go to Mr. & Mrs. Hansel Lloyd RYLE. We have since visited several counties and cemeteries in Texas tracing many of the fourteen children and descendants of John W. and Susan Jane. Their Bible and other records show the following:

TAKERS OF THE 1870 FEDERAL CENSUS

Contributed by: William R. HENRY, Editor.

Our CGGS Newsletter for September 1993 contained an article, "Caution on use of 1870 US Census," based on an article published by George Schroter of the Mobile Public Library in his 11 Jul.1993 column, "Heritage and History" published in the Mobile (AL) Register. His article stated the census was taken in a period of upheaval and many people had moved. Census takers were political appointees. Many were Northerners who could not understand Southern accents or mountain twangs. Many people did not want to give information to Yankee strangers. The article appears to cast doubt on the accuracy of the 1870 census.

The book, "Census, 190 Years of Counting America," 1980 by Dan HALACY, states that the censuses from 1790 through 1870 were taken by US Marshals. The 1880 census was the first one taken by specialized professionals (Enumerators) under the newly created Census Office within the Department of Interior.

Just what relationship was carried out between the US Marshal's Office and Federal Troops during the Military Reconstruction, that would effect the census taking is not clear. Did counties in the central Georgia area have these problems with Assistant Marshals appointed by the US Marshal's Office? Who took the census in these counties?

A look at Houston County indicates the following: Samuel HUNT, was Asst. Marshal and enumerated people in the northern part of the county. A.S. GILES, was Asst. Marshal and enumerated people in the southern part of the county. Who were these Asst. Marshals?

> Samuel HUNT, is listed as a Private with Beauregard Volunteers, Co. "C" 6th Georgia Regiment. The 1870 census shows he was born in Tennessee and with wife & child was living in household of Andrew S. GILES. He also served as Receiver of Tax Returns of Houston County from 1871 through 1874.
> Andrew Samuel GILES, was born in Houston County on 21 Oct.1841 and died in Houston County on 24 Mar.1897. He served as a Sergeant Major, Artillery, with Co. "C", First Regiment, Southern Rights Guard from Houston County. He was District Attorney 1868-1872 and was County Ordinary 1873-1885. His father was Hon. John Mason GILES, a Lawyer, who also served as Lieutenant, State Troops. His father represented Houston County in two Constitutional Conventions and also served as a Justice of the Inferior Court from 23 Jan.1865 till he died 25 May 1866. Andrew Samuel GILES is referred to as Judge A.S. GILES, son of Colonel John M. GILES, in the "First Hundred and Ten Years of Houston County, GA (1822-1932)," published by our Society in 1983. This book was copied from an original typed manuscript compiled in 1929 by County Historians Mrs. H.P. DOBBINS and Mrs. C.B. ANDREW and Edited by Warren GRICE.

Ex-soldiers of the Confederacy were considered "belligerent's", and denied the right of vote under the Reconstruction Acts of 1867. However some were reinstated by signing the Amnesty Oath but the most able leaders were not permitted to sign. The Houston Home Journal reported the election returns for 28 Dec.1870, stating "The election passed off very quietly in Houston resulting in the triumph of the Radicals by a large majority". "Samuel HUNT" was listed among those elected. At first Editor WATERMAN urged his fellow Democrats to not sign the bonds of those elected, but later when some of his fellow Democrats came forth and signed the bonds his tone changed. He stated, "Their Bondsmen are Democrats. Our convictions are unchanged, but as these Democrats are men of undoubted character and political principle, representative men who are supposed to know their business, we have nothing more to say on the subject." The Federal troops were withdrawn in 1871 and the Democrats regained local control.

RECENT ACQUISITIONS AT WASHINGTON MEMORIAL LIBRARY

POLICY: The Central Georgia Genealogical Society, Inc., during 1987 discontinued the maintenance of a Society Library. The holdings in our Library were small and duplicated publications held in the Genealogical and Historical Room, Washington Memorial Library, Macon, GA which has one of the largest collections in the southeast. The Macon Library is centrally located within the 27 counties of primary interest of our society and can far better serve our membership. All publications previously held were presented to Willard L. ROCKER, Head Librarian at the Genealogical and Historical Room. All publication received by our society as gifts, donations, by exchange programs or for book reviews will be presented to the same library. Since 1987, it has been our policy to support the Macon Library particularly in the acquisition of microfilms of early county records within our jurisdictional area. We hope to expand our support as future conditions permit. As a service to our membership, this column list the acquisition of all records since the previous Quarterly. Inquiries with SASE (business size) may be addressed to the library at 1180 Washington Ave., Macon, GA 31201.

William R. HENRY, Editor

NOTE: The genealogical collection of this library contains 19,975 books, 7570 microfilms, 6400 microfiche, 259 Maps and 60 subscriptions. The library serves over 13,500 visitors annually and the rate is increasing at 10.4% per year. During past nine months they came from 37 states, with Florida, Alabama, Texas, South Carolina, Virginia, Tennessee and California representing states (in order) with the highest number.
